

Mercury Photographer's Early Morning Shots Show Woman's Narrow Escape From Death Under Crushing 20-Ton Concrete Slab

The story of a bizarre accident in which the rear of a tractor trailer actually ran over a car's hood is told in this series of photographs. The tractor, facing north on Firestone boulevard, had just made a left turn from the road to a concrete plant. The car hit the 53-foot, 20-ton slab near its middle and skidded along the edge of the slab to the rear of the trailer. The car driver, Mrs. Ruth Emery, 70 North Franklin street, was injured seriously. She had been driving on the boulevard toward the plant.

Here's the driver's seat of the car in which Mrs. Emery narrowly escaped being crushed to death. The 54-year-old woman had head injuries, a probably fractured jaw, a cut of her left ear and multiple small cuts of her face from flying bits of glass. X-rays were taken. She was in "fairly good" condition in Memorial hospital last night. A passing motorist took her to the hospital while a Good Will ambulance that was called was on its way to the scene. Mrs. Emery is a tube-packer at the Firestone plant.

There was much less damage to the little white boxes of eggs shown in the foreground, which were in Mrs. Emery's car, than there was to the steel hood of the car after the double wheels at the rear of the tractor had climbed onto it. The truck driver was Gerald P. Landis, 518 Spruce street, who was hauling the 20-ton, pre-cast bridge slab from Concrete Products company of America's plant. He escaped injury, but damage to the tractor trailer, owned by Harry Weidenbaugh, 1408 Chestnut street, was estimated at $500.

After the trailer's end has been hoisted clear, a garageman prepares to hook the front of the car to the tow-truck chain at left. Lower Pottsgrove Chief of Police Harry Chursch said the 1951 two-door sedan was a total ($1500) wreck. Mrs. Emery, who was alone, said she didn't see the trailer until it was too late to stop. The accident happened a few hundred feet south of the borough line at 6:35 o'clock. A crane lifted the concrete slab onto another trailer end. The slab was hauled to York county, where it will be used in a bridge.

3 DIRECTORS ARE ELECTED AT HOSPITAL

Postmaster, Attorney and Industrialist Named To Board

ADMINISTRATORS SEE NEW NURSE HEAD FOR 1ST TIME

Postmaster J. Alfred Marquet, Attorney William A. O'Donnell Jr. and Robert E. Jeffries, president of Neapco Products incorporated, were elected directors of Memorial hospital last night.

Their election by the 13 directors at the hospital board's November meeting at Brookside Country club was unanimous. Each will serve for one year.

Albert P. Pollock, hospital administrator, and Mrs. Virginia Harris, directress of nurses, also were present at the meeting. Mrs. Harris was introduced to the directors for the first time since assuming her post recently.

Royersford Woman Is Injured Slightly In 2-Car Collision

A second installment of crunched steel was recorded on East High street yesterday afternoon.

It resulted in minor injuries to a Royersford woman. In the first accident yesterday morning, Mrs. Ruth Emery, 70 North Franklin street, narrowly escaped death under the impact of a crushing tractor-trailer which rolled over the hood of her car.

Mrs. Harry Obenshine, 54, of 319 Washington street, Royersford, was treated for a cut of the right knee and a cut over the right eye at the Memorial hospital dispensary yesterday afternoon.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Dorothy Obenshine Haas, (Continued on Page Two)

What Better Present? Boy Wants His Tooth

Letters to Santa Claus are letters of hope and expectation. And Pottstown boys and girls are full of hopes and dreams for Christmas, 1952.

David Haws, 525 Vine street, Stowe, made an unusual written request to Santa. He wrote, "I want a gas station and a steam shovel and a lot of trucks and my front tooth."

A first grader at West Pottsgrove school, David is just one of hundreds of area boys and girls who are awaiting an answer from the jolly round man of the North Pole.

And if Pottstown parents keep up the stream of mail which is pouring into The Mercury and Pottstown Automobile club offices there will be many happy children on Christmas day.

Parents have until Dec. 12 to get their letters into one of the two offices, letters FROM Santa Claus.

By answering the questions on the minds of their children they can assure childish confidence in the round, benevolent old fellow who carries a pack of gifts.

Letters can be dropped into either office or they can be mailed in larger envelopes. Each envelope must contain an airmail stamp.

Letters will be flown to Fairbanks, Alaska, by Pan American Airlines.

Santa Claus has been a versatile chap in his long reign at the North Pole and a first grade Stowe boy wants to prove the old fellow's versatility. Santa will have to turn dentist if he is to satisfy the request of David Haws, 525 Vine street, who wants, among other things, a front tooth for Christmas. David is the son of Mrs. Susan Haws.

Youth Will Be Honored as Eagle Scout

Pottstown will salute its newest Eagle Scout Sunday night at services in Emmanuel Lutheran church.

The highest rank in scouting will be conferred upon Ernest A. Kully Jr., Pottstown Landing, at the 7:30 p. m. vesper services.

A Senior at North Coventry High school, Kully also is a member of Emmanuel Lutheran's Boy Scout troop 8.

The 17-year-old scout completed requirements for Eagle rank the past July. Valley Forge Boy Scout council headquarters, Philadelphia, which has jurisdiction over the Pottstown area, has just finished reviewing his record.

Eagle rank requires a scout to reach First Class rank, then earn 21 merit badges. Each merit badge signifies that the scout has passed a dozen or more tests in a specialized field.

Kully already has 29 merit badges, eight more than he requires.

SURPLUS STORE IS BURGLARIZED SECOND TIME

$74 Taken From Desk, Metal Cash Container; Papers Scattered

BURGLARY IS AREA'S 4TH SINCE NOV. 11; 3 IN TOWN

A $74 burglary of Pottstown Surplus store, 970 High street, was added yesterday to the rapidly-growing list of unsolved burglaries in the latest local crime wave.

It was the second burglary of the Surplus store in the past three years. The safe-cracking in which several hundred dollars was stolen has not been solved.

It also was the fourth burglary discovered since the Nov. 11—three of them in the borough, the fourth just across the Schuylkill from Pottstown. The first three were:

Nov. 11—Between $65 and $70, and two bottles of liquor stolen from the barroom at Riverside hotel, 205 South Hanover street, South Pottstown.

Nov. 12—Sixty dollars stolen from the barroom of Holy Trinity club, 437 South street.

Thanksgiving Meal Will Be Cheaper Than It Was in 1951

Tomorrow's standard Thanksgiving dinner will be cheaper than that which graced Pottstown tables the past year.

The most expensive item on the table, Tom Turkey himself, is selling for 4 to 10 cents less per pound, depending on whether Mother just wants to shove him into the oven or clean and draw him herself.

A high street supermarket advertised in The Mercury yesterday that Tom costs 51 cents per-pound if he weighs 10 to 16 pounds undressed and 47 cents if 20 pounds or over, compared with 59 and 51 cents respectively the past year.

If Tom is dressed and weighs between 8 and 14 pounds he sells for 63 cents this year instead of (Continued on Page Two)

Mrs. C. H. Shomo's Condition Is Worse

The condition of Mrs. Charles H. Shomo, 107 West Walnut street, became more critical yesterday.

Her family reported Dr. J. G. Shade, Pottstown physician attending Mrs. Shomo, said the active church leader would continue to have periods of semi-consciousness until she lapses into a coma.

Mrs. Shomo, known affectionately as "Aunt Tillie" in the borough and Stowe, was stricken with a heart attack Oct. 30 and was taken to Memorial hospital.

She remained in the hospital until Nov. 11. Another stroke Nov. 17 caused the critical condition which has paralyzed the right side of her body.

Luther Leagues Speaker Describes Spiritual Leadership by America

God's guidance has made America the spiritual leader of the world, a guest speaker told a dinner meeting of Pottstown area Lutheran leagues in Emmanuel Lutheran church last night.

That is one of the foremost reasons for being grateful this Thanksgiving season, the group was told by Alvin Schaeffer, Cliffside Park, N. J., former president of the Lutheran League of America.

Schaeffer spoke before 300 members of Luther leagues in the Norristown conference at the annual Thanksgiving rally dinner.

Last night's dinner meeting was the fifth affair of its kind to be held in Emmanuel church.

Christmas Lights Go On; Season Opens

A brief ceremony at Pottstown post office and the lighting of the Christmas decorations in the business district last night marked the beginning of this year's observance of the holiday season.

5 Area Churches Set Mental Health Plans

Five area churches are organizing a campaign to improve families' mental health with injections of religion.

Representatives from Evansburg Methodist, St. James Episcopal, Augustus Lutheran (Trappe), Trinity Reformed (Collegeville) and St. Luke's Reformed (Trappe) churches have formed a temporary committee to establish a permanent campaign group.

Spearheading the move is Mrs. Franklin L. Sheeder, Collegeville, representative of the Mental Health association of Lower Perkiomen valley.

Members of the temporary committee planning the drive include: Donald Fisher, temporary chairman, Mrs. Mildred McCormick, Herman Pundit and Mrs. David T. MacNair.

A meeting will be held Dec. 4, and future gatherings will be conducted at the five member churches, each featuring movies and lectures.

COST OF DINNER —

73. If the innards-less bird weighs 18 or more pounds he will cost 57 cents-a-pound or eight cents less than 1951.

OF THE standard vegetables and other commodities which will appear before hungry Pottstowners tomorrow, bread, potatoes, peas and string beans cost more and celery, olives, pickles and cranberry sauce are at about the same price level, a borough grocer reported.

He said most bread is up one cent from 18 and potatoes have increased ten cents to 49 over the past year's 39 for 10 pounds.

Number one quality canned peas and string beans both have risen three cents to 19 cents over 1951's price, he added.

Celery ranges from 15 to 29 cents a bunch depending on the size of the stalk, olives still are about 19 cents if in a small jar and pickles remain at 29 cents in a quart jar, he said.

The price of Cranberry sauce, the seasoning that adds to Tom's deliciousness, is equal to the 19 cent tag on a medium-sized can the past year.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS —

As the Rev. Frantz spoke, all the Christmas decorations were lighted except for the tree on the lawn at the post office. The tree burst into light as he said, "We must shed our light over a dark and troubled world."

Providing the Christmas atmosphere for the gathering were the Meister Singers, borough choral group, who sang a number of carols.

The temperature is expected to top 50 degrees as it did yesterday but by nightfall the mercury will take a sudden drop. The cold will continue tomorrow and the wind will continue to sweep across Pottstown and vicinity.

In tropic regions pine trees are found chiefly in the mountains.

Minister Says Most Citizens Fail to Look For Future Blessings

Most Americans say "thank you" for the things of the past but do not look into the future for things to be thankful for, the Rev. George Eichorn, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown, told the Pottstown Lions club last night.

Speaking further on Thanksgiving and its meaning, the minister said Americans concentrate on worries that are approaching rather than on the good things coming to us.

As a result, he said, we become alarmed and afraid. "We are not putting trust in the Lord," he said.

Richard Brown reported the club's Christmas party, which members' children and wives will attend, will be at 6:30 p. m. Dec. 9 in the Eagles Home association, scene of last night's meeting.

GIFTS WILL BE PRESENTED and there will be professional entertainment.

President A. E. Willauer presided over the business meeting and a later meeting of the board of directors.

OBITUARIES

Services for the REV. EDWARD F. O'MALLEY, former rector of St. Aloysius Catholic church, will be held on Friday.

Father O'Malley, who served as rector of Our Mother of Sorrows church, PHILADELPHIA, for the past 16 years, was rector in Pottstown from April, 1934 to June, 1935. He died Sunday in Mauch Chunk. He was 58.

Father O'Malley was ordained on May 30, 1922, in the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul by the late Dennis Cardinal Dougherty. He was a former director of the diocesan Catholic charities, and former chaplain at All Saints chapel, Philadelphia General hospital.

A native of Ireland, he was graduated from Roman Catholic High school, Philadelphia, and attended St. Charles Borromeo seminary Overbrook.

He had served as assistant rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Mauch Chunk; the Church of St. Charles, Oakview, and St. Veronica's church, Philadelphia.

He is survived by a sister, Molly O'Malley, of Philadelphia, and a brother, Michael, New York City.

Divine office will be chanted at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows, followed by a solemn requiem mass at 10:30 a. m.

Another requiem mass will be celebrated at 11 a. m. Saturday in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Mauch Chunk. Interment will be in the Mauch Chunk cemetery.

Services for the REV. EDWARD F. O'MALLEY, former rector of St. Aloysius Catholic church, will be held on Friday.

Father O'Malley, who served as rector of Our Mother of Sorrows church, PHILADELPHIA, for the past 16 years, was rector in Pottstown from April, 1934 to June, 1935. He died Sunday in Mauch Chunk. He was 58.

Father O'Malley was ordained on May 30, 1922, in the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul by the late Dennis Cardinal Dougherty. He was a former director of the diocesan Catholic charities, and former chaplain at All Saints chapel, Philadelphia General hospital.

A native of Ireland, he was graduated from Roman Catholic High school, Philadelphia, and attended St. Charles Borromeo seminary Overbrook.

He had served as assistant rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Mauch Chunk; the Church of St. Charles, Oakview, and St. Veronica's church, Philadelphia.

He is survived by a sister, Molly O'Malley, of Philadelphia, and a brother, Michael, New York City.

Divine office will be chanted at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows, followed by a solemn requiem mass at 10:30 a. m.

Another requiem mass will be celebrated at 11 a. m. Saturday in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Mauch Chunk. Interment will be in the Mauch Chunk cemetery.

The little cancer and polio victim was up for a while yesterday in a wheel chair, but soon was returned to his Sacred Heart, Norristown, hospital bed, because he was tired.

His father added, "We got him to eat a little ice cream tonight, but it wasn't much."

"Bobby still would like mail. He always seemed happy when mail arrived. But he hasn't received any lately."

Rotary Head Submits Proposed Laws for Inter-Service Club

Walter F. Heise, Pottstown Rotary club president, submitted a draft of proposed by-laws to the constitution of the Inter-Service club at the organization's meeting yesterday.

Nine members of the Inter-Service club discussed the many provisions of the by-laws but will reserve final decisions for a future meeting.

Heise volunteered at the past month's meeting to work on the project and submit it at the November session.

Among the provisions in the supplement to the constitution is the proposal to set up a permanent organization in order to make the Inter-Service club a working body.

HE SAID the by-laws provide for a president, vice president and secretary. If the move is approved, the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce will serve as permanent secretary for the Inter-Service club.

It provides that the president and vice president be elected to set up the organization for terms of six months. The vice president, thereafter, will move up to president for another six months and a new vice president will be elected.

Drumheller-Schultz Rites Set Saturday

Mildred G. Drumheller, Niantic, will become the bride of Robert L. Schultz, Perkiomenville, at a 3 p. m. ceremony Saturday in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Sassamansville.

Performing the ceremony will be the Rev. William L. Shaud. Organ music will be played by Gordon Lechner, who will accompany soloist Murtle Krause.

Miss Drumheller will walk down the aisle on the arm of her brother, Frederick Bilger, wearing a white, ballerina length gown.

From the frock's French lace bodice cascades a skirt of tulle over satin. The bride will wear matching elbow-length mitts of tulle.

Her shoulder length veil will fall from a crown of seed pearls. She will carry a colonial bouquet with a lavender orchid centered amid white mums and lily-of-the-valley.

As matron of honor the bride's sister, Kathryn Raynor, will be clad in a ballerina frock of blue with a bolero covering its halter neckline.

Her headpiece will be made of velvet rings with a face veil and her bouquet will be a colonial assortment of yellow rosebuds and rust mums.

Verna Schultz, Perkiomenville, will be bridesmaid. She is a sister of the groom. Her shrimp colored gown of tulle of satin will be matched by her velvet-banded hat and mitts.

Her colonial bouquet will be made up of talisman-roses and yellow pompons.

Clarence Kolb, Gilbertsville, will be best man and Walter Dotterer will usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Drumheller, Niantic, are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schultz, Perkiomenville RD 1.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Drumheller plans to wear black accessories with her navy blue frock. The groom's mother expects to be attired in gray with black accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held in Green Tree lodge, Obelisk.

The couple will make their home in Perkiomenville.

Mr. Schultz is employed at Style's Parlor Frame company.

Green Lane. The bride is an employee of the Bell Telephone company.

Stowe Church Scene of Chomyn-Lomnychuck Service

White carnations and palms decked the altar of St. Michael's Ukrainian Catholic church, Stowe, for the afternoon marriage of Ann Chomyn and Michael Lomnychuck. The Rev. Nicholas Baranek officiated in his church for the double ring ceremony. Over 400 guests saw Miss Chomyn approach the altar in a white gown of Chantilly lace styled with a pointed collar and long sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. The lace bodice extended into an apron effect on the skirt which ended in a satin cathedral length train. From a lace cap edged with seed pearls, the bride's tulle veil applied with lace extended the length of her gown. She carried a bridal bouquet of white split carnations centered with a purple orchid. Mrs. Sereko Melnyk in a shrimp taffeta gown featuring a strapless bodice and bolero and Rose Breslawski in a similar gown of American Beauty taffeta flanked the bride as matron of honor and maid of honor. Olga Procki, as bridesmaid, chose blue taffeta. They wore matching feather halos and carried baskets of rust and yellow chrysanthemums. Best man and ushers were Nicholas Lenzuk, George Strutynski and Joseph Lomnychuck. The bride's mother, Maria Chomyn, 320 Race street, Stowe, chose a wine print dress with black accessories for the wedding and the reception in St. Peter's hall. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Lomnychuck of Boyertown RD 2. Mrs. Lomnychuck wore a blue taffeta dress for the wedding. Both mothers had orchid corsages. The couple left for a honeymoon trip to Florida with the bride traveling in a blue light weight suit with matching hat, black coat and black accessories. Guests attended from Canada, Philadelphia, Phoenixville, Coatesville, Reading, Boyertown, Stowe and Pottstown. The bride is a graduate of West Pottsgrove High school and is employed by E. V. Hunter, Stowe; the bridegroom graduated from Pottstown Senior High school and is an employee at the Doehler Jarvis plant.

Visitors Entertained By Valley Grange

Valley grange, Red Hill, entertained visitors from both the Sannatoga and New Hanover granges at its regular meeting last night.

After a short business meeting presided over by Master Malcom Wehr, the group was entertained by a program presented by the Pioneer grange of Tipton.

Included in the program was a reading of President Truman's Thanksgiving proclamation. There also were other readings and musical numbers.

Two skits were presented, the first entitled "Going for a Walk" and another called "The All-Bachelor club."

Mrs. Felix G. Weiss, lecturer of Valley Forge grange, arranged for the program by the visitors from Tipton.

EAGLE SCOUT —

Richard D. Dutcher, Continental district scout executive for the Valley Forge council, the Rev. Dr. Luther A. Krouse, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran, and the honored scout's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Kully Sr.

Dr. Krouse will preach a special sermon to the congregation, which will include the scouts of the Emmanuel Lutheran, and the honored scout's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Kully Sr.

After the sermon Dutcher will call the new Eagle scout to the front of the auditorium, where he will present the badge and an Eagle miniature pin.

Eagle Scout Kully will then pin the miniature on his mother's shoulder to signify that she is the mother of an Eagle scout.

Kully has been in scouting eight years, beginning as a cub in Emmanuel Lutheran's pack 53, to which he belonged three years. He has been a member of troop 8 the past five years.

HE SPENT seven weeks at Camp Delmont to win the camping merit badge, which requires 50 days of camping.

The high-ranking scout will be entitled to a Bronze Palm award and credit toward the Gold Palm for the merit badges he has earned since reaching Eagle status. These awards are given for each additional five merit badges.

The list of merit badges Kully has earned include these required ones.

Safety, pathfinding, first aid, swimming, cooking, public health, personal health, pioneering, athletics, life saving, bird study, camping and civics.

Others on his sash are for carpentry, woodworking, basketry, forestry, art, poultry keeping, bugling, leathercraft, hiking, cycling, metal working, fishing, nature study, home repairs, rowing and firemanship.

The last two on the list were awarded to Kully at this week's meeting of troop 8 by Scoutmaster William Sands.

STORE BURGLARY —

cash drawers at the Pottstown Moose home, 320 High street. A bottle of expensive Scotch whisky also was taken.

THE LATEST BURGLARY was discovered at 8 o'clock yesterday morning by Mrs. Florence Frain, 553 King street, store bookkeeper who opened the store.

She noticed that papers were scattered on the office floor and that a drawer, which had a metal cash container in it, was open. From the container, $49 was taken. The additional $25 was taken from a desk drawer.

The safe door was open. It did not hold cash and was not locked because the combination had been removed for repairs.

Police Sgt. Daniel J. Linton, who investigated, found that entrance was gained through a 12-by-18-inch window on the west side of the building. Jagged edges were left in the frame of the broken window.

Doors and other windows of the store were not forced, indicating that the burglars had left the same way they entered.

Norton Peck, store manager, said late yesterday afternoon that he believed four leather jackets also had been stolen from the store. He was beginning an inventory check.

The manager added that he was amazed anyone could squeeze through such a small window hole without being cut.

There were no blood stains on the edges of glass, indicating to police that the burglars had been wearing gloves when they grasped the broken window's frame to climb inside.

Kiwanis Club Hears Reading Clergyman

The Rev. Dr. Gunnar Knudsen, Reading Lutheran church pastor, told the Pottstown Kiwanis club last night the part a minister plays in community work.

Present at the meeting in addition to 60 members of the service club were nine ministers of Pottstown churches and James F. Baird, YMCA secretary.

Dr. Knudsen said one of his principle duties is to stress the solemnity of marriage and to help make certain that persons to be wed will become assets to the community.

"All the minister gets out of his work is a little remuneration and a lot of satisfaction," he concluded.

Stanley I. Davenport, president, presided at a board meeting immediately following the regular meeting.

Two Speed Trap Signs Erected on High Street

Pottstown's first two speed trap signs were erected yesterday by Charles Schwoyer, the borough's utility maintenance man.

One sign was installed on West High street for eastbound traffic and the other on East High street for westbound motorists.

They'll Serve on Hospital Board

J. Alfred Marquet William A. O'Donnell Jr. Robert E. Jeffries

These three men were elected last night to serve on the board of directors of Memorial hospital. Marquet is borough postmaster and former labor leader; O'Donnell is a Pottstown attorney, and Jeffries is president of Neapco incorporated.

cently after serving temporarily since February, 1951.

BORN IN Douglassville, but a Pottstown resident since he was four, Marquet worked for the Henricks Pretzel company after being educated in borough schools.

In 1935 he entered the temple shop at Bethlehem Steel's Pottstown plant. He was president of Local 2177, United Steel Workers union (CIO) before leaving the company in 1950 to assume the postmastership.

He is Democratic committee-man of the Sixth ward and has been party campaign chairman, and a member of the party's executive committee.

He has served as secretary of the St. James Lutheran church Sunday school and is a former member of the church council.

O'DONNELL WAS a lieutenant (jg) in the Naval Air Corps from 1941 to 1946. He is a past commander of the George A. Amole American Legion post, a director of the Montgomery county Bar association and a Rotarian.

He also is a member of numerous fraternal organizations and Brooks Country club, a director of the National bank of Pottstown and the Pottstown Rapid Transit company.

He was co chairman of the 1951 Community chest campaign.

Jeffries, born in Illinois, is 35, married 12 years to the former Eva Coleman, Illinois, and the father of three children Robert Jr., 10; Eve, 4, and Ted 2.

HE BEGAN his career in 1938 after receiving his engineering degree at the University of Illinois. He worked four years in the research laboratories at the General Motors corporation, then joined Jacobs Aircraft Engine company in Pottstown as chief test engineer.

In 1944 he was employed by the New England Auto Products company, first as chief engineer, then as general sales manager.

He was appointed president of the firm in 1949 when the company name was changed to Neapco Products incorporated.

HE IS a member of the Brooks Country club, the board of directors of the Wyndcroft school, the Society of Automotive Engineers and the Young Presidents organization of America.

He was captain of the city center section of the industrial division of the recent United Fund-Red Cross drive.

enthusiasm and works for the interest of others rather than for himself" and she hoped he could use the luggage on a "well-earned vacation."

Montgomery county Superintendent of Schools A. M. Kulp, who praised Stauffer for his "organization to perform services," also lauded him for his co-operation with Kulp's office and the State Department of Public Instruction.

He noted that Stauffer had served as a school director longer than any other man in the township and recognized him as an "outstanding person who is aware of the educational needs of the community."

In responding to the praise heaped on him, Stauffer said:

"I believe in public schools and all money spent for public schools is money spent toward the preparation for democratic living, which makes this land a great place in which to live."

He also observed that "good teachers are leaders of the community."

HE SAID he had arrived in Stowe in 1923 "as a stranger, but I was readily accepted by the 'people there' and he has enjoyed being a part of the community."

Stauffer commended his fellow directors for their co-operation, which "I have always had," in working for the progress of the school district.

Supervising Principal James T. Jones earlier had introduced the school directors and these county school officials. M. Wesley Delwiler, Kulp's assistant; Gerald Hottenstein, Kulp's administrative assistant; Dr. Mabel G. Kessler, supervisor of the special education, and Cynthia Welder, supervisor of psychological services.

Busy housewives will take time off from household chores today and tomorrow to wage an extensive telephone campaign in Pottstown to boost the number of donors to give blood Tuesday.

Yesterday, 81 persons were on the rolls to give blood on the seventh visit of the bloodmobile. That represents an increase of 86 over Monday.

In spite of the large one day increase, many more donors are needed to meet the quota of 185 for this visit of the bloodmobile.

A committee of nine women will glue their ears to telephone receivers and keep Pottstown telephone operators busy ringing potential donors.

THE TELEPHONE BRIGADE is made up of Mrs. Richard Scheffey, Mrs. Lewis Shoemaker, Mrs. William Hoar, Mrs. Charles Bickler, Mrs. William Binder, Mrs. Harry Neyenesch, Mrs. Edward Appel, Mrs. J. Robert Gray and Mrs. Elmer S. Friedberg.

They will cite the needs for plasma and whole blood by the armed forces in Korea. About 50 percent of the blood collected goes there.

Aside from the pure advantage of giving, the donor will have protection for the blood needs of himself and his family for one year.

At the meeting of the local Red Cross when the telephone committee was appointed, it was announced the quota for Pottstown for the year ending June 30, 1953, is 2375 pints of blood. To date 676 pints have been collected.

The blood collected so far was accumulated in six visits of the bloodmobile. There will be nine more visits here, including the one on Dec. 2, to make the total quota.

man of the toy clinic reported the committee of 12 plans to work on toys, and 50 members will contribute time and materials to fix toys.

Boy Scouts have collected a small truckload of toys which women are working on, but there's still a shortage of needed toys and time is running short.

Women have just two more weeks to complete the job. Toys can be taken to the borough's three fire companies: The Empire Hook and Ladder Fire company, Chestnut and Franklin streets; the Philadelphia Fire company, Chestnut and Penn streets, and the Good Will Fire company, Hanover and Queen streets.

Toys will be distributed by the Visiting Nurse organization, the Salvation Army, and the Family Welfare society.

New Hanover Sells Thanksgiving Rites

New Hanover Lutheran church will have a special Thanksgiving service tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock, followed by a congregational breakfast in the parish house.

The Junior and Senior choirs will sing at the service. The Rev. Edgar M. Cooper, pastor, will officiate, and will speak on the topic, "God's Family Is Thankful."

The congregational breakfast will be prepared by the Kathleen-Ragan society, assisted by the Women's Missionary society.

Clothing for Lutheran World Relief, to aid Korean war victims, may be brought to the church tomorrow.

Prince Re-Elected President of NAACP In Baptist Church

Charles Prince, 303 Howard street, Stowe, was re-elected to his second one-year term as president of the Pottstown chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People last night in the Mt. Herman Baptist church, Stowe.

Elected with Prince at the November meeting of the group were the Rev. H. A. Anderson, vice president, pastor of the Eureka Independent Community church, Pottstown; Henry Dozier, secretary; Eddie Hill, treasurer, and the Rev. Ozzie Darlington, associate pastor of the Mt. Herman church, chaplain.

Twenty-two members attended the meeting. It was reported that Councilmen Gustave H. Shade Jr. and Charles S. Grubb, of the Ninth ward, and Councilman Paul Marshall, of the Tenth ward, are expected to attend the chapter's Dec. 9 meeting.

Marshall is chairman of council's Sewer and Highway committee. The councilmen and the chapter will discuss construction of a street and installation of a sewer on Hemlock row in the Ninth ward.

Searles Methodist Plans Organ Recital

The second public recital on the new pipe organ at Searles Memorial Methodist church will be held Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. C. Robert Ege, blind organist from Philadelphia, will give the recital.

The guest player is organist and choirmaster of the Woodland Avenue United Presbyterian church, Philadelphia.

He is a teacher of organ music, music appreciation and choral work at the Overbrook School for the Blind.

A graduate of the Philadelphia Music Academy, Ege is a member of the Fellowship of the American Guild of Organists and a senior member of the American Organ Players club.

One of the compositions he will play which was written by himself is entitled, "Veni Emmanuel."

On the committee planning the recital are Charles Nagle, Mrs. Fred Schlegel, Mrs. Paul Moyer, Edith Nagle, Emma Stetler, Joanne Brown and Arthur E. Shade.

YMCA Boys' Head Seeks Quarters for 100 at Conference

About 100 homes still are needed to house 'teen-age boys during the weekend of Dec. 5, 6 and 7, when the YMCA Older Boys' conference meets in Pottstown.

Charles F. Fegley, director of boys' work at the YMCA, said last night that lodging for Friday and Saturday night, Dec. 5 and 6, breakfast Saturday and Sunday and lunch Sunday is needed.

Householders who would like to accommodate one or two boys of high school age should contact the YMCA or the representative of the housing committee at their church, Fegley said.

There will be 141 boys and eight leaders coming to Pottstown for the conference, Twenty-two Eastern Pennsylvania communities will be represented.

Bids Are Received For School Addition

Upper Pottsgrove School District authority received bids from five contractors last night for the construction of a two-room addition to the township elementary school but postponed the awarding of a contract.

The authority expects to announce the successful bidder sometime after Dec. 2, the tentative date on which it will discuss the bids.

Secretary Paul Firing said the contract is not scheduled to be awarded that night.

Members of the township school board sat in on the brief meeting in the school last night.

Santa Claus Ready For Grand Arrival Into Town Friday

Santa Claus will arrive in Pottstown for his annual visit Friday morning at 9:44 o'clock via the Reading railroad.

The ruler of the Northland picked Friday for his grand entrance into the borough because all school children will have the opportunity to meet him at the station since there are no classes that day. Schools will be celebrating the Thanksgiving holiday.

Immediately after his arrival, Santa will proceed to Pottstown Senior High school auditorium where he will put on a marionette show entitled, "Santa Claus Circus."

Children will be admitted into the auditorium by tickets issued at the New York store. The tickets are being given free at the store.

Gifts will be given to the children attending the program at the High school.

AFTER THE SHOW, Santa will proceed to the New York store where he will set up his headquarters until Christmas Eve.

In the youth department on the second floor of the store, Santa will prop wide-eyed children on his knee and listen to hundreds of requests for dolls, trains, wagons, drums and other toys from eager boys and girls.

Ex-Guardsman Tells Of Wasp's Ramming

Kenneth B. Hanley Jr., a former member of Pottstown National Guard and now an aviation electronics mate in the Navy, returned to the borough unit last night and related some of his experiences while serving on the USS Wasp.

The former Company A, 111th Infantry Regimental Combat Team, member was aboard the carrier USS Wasp when it collided with the destroyer USS Hobson, sinking the smaller vessel with a heavy loss of life.

At the drill section of the meeting, M/Sgt. James Tooley gave instructions in interior guard and sentry duty; Sgt. Robert Gibble instructed in rifle defense tactics; Sgt. Paul McCarty was instructor for mortar defense tactics; Sgt. Ernest Seyler lectured on rifle defense tactics, and Sgt. Christ Eliades explained pastry baking to the mess detail.

Missing Used Car Found By Sinking Springs Police

The black 1940 sedan stolen from the Cates and Becker parking space this past Saturday was recovered yesterday in Sinking Springs.

The sedan, valued at $347, was found abandoned by police of Sinking Springs.

Visiting Pastor Speaks To Zion's Brotherhood

An address by a visiting clergyman and accordion solos highlighted a session of Zion's Reformed brotherhood last night.

The Rev. Wilbur Trexler, pastor of Perkasee Reformed church, spoke to 24 brotherhood members on the theme, "Do We Appreciate the Good Things of Life?"

John Casselbury played three accordion selections. Wayne Mest, treasurer, and Bruce Bechtel, secretary, were honored for birthday anniversaries.

Inspection Privileges Suspended by State

Auto inspection privileges of Frank E. Hoffman, an auto repairman at 317 North Franklin street, were suspended yesterday.

Jeffersonville State Policeman Raymond Nighan, inspection station supervisor, said the suspension notice, effective the past Thursday, was served on Hoffman yesterday.

He said the suspension was for conducting incomplete inspections. Hoffman has been an official inspector for the Bureau of Highway Safety since 1937.

Nighan said mechanics in inspection stations are being reminded each inspected car must be given a road test and a thorough check of its exhaust system must be made in addition to the vehicle's meeting all other requirements.

The so-called "Irish potato" originally came from South America.

South Street Resident Held for Surety of Peace

John Bodner, 69, of 456 South street, was arrested for surety of the peace at his home at 7:30 o'clock last night by West Pottsgrove Police Chief James Guadagno.

Guadagno made the arrest when Justice of the Peace Richard H. Cadmus of the Seventh ward issued a warrant on a complaint by Edith Zamorsky of the South street address.

Bodner is being held in the Pottstown lockup until Cadmus gives him a hearing on the charge.

Pottstown Portraits

A Quick Look at Your Neighbor

By FRED C. SELBY

JOHN W. STORB did a lot of traveling around the country and the world when he had to pay for it, but now that he can travel free, he hasn't been able to do it.

He has been too busy helping others to travel. The son of the late John W. Storb, who was president of the National Iron Bank, Storb was in varied business lines until he returned to Pottstown a year ago and started the Storb Travel Service, 233 High Street.

He's been so busy with it that he hasn't been able to travel since, even though airlines and boat lines bombard him with free-trip offers because they sensibly figure that he will speak more glowingly to customers of a particular cruise or flight if he's made it himself.

Storb came by his interest in travel naturally. His father, who died in 1938, went to Europe four or five times. The son went along twice. The son also has been to such far-flung points as Iceland, Mexico and Moscow, Russia (before the War).

As soon as business permits, Storb plans to take a travel agent's vacation, going to points in South America he hasn't been to yet.

Storb said Pottstonians, instead of having the stay-at-home attitude supposed to be common in small, old American communities, are great travelers, even more so than he thought when he started his agency.

He mentioned that perhaps 75 percent of the local residents who go abroad are on their way to visit relatives and friends. Germany, England and Italy are the countries most often visited by Pottstonians for this reason.

Storb was born in Pottstown and is a graduate of The Hill. He studied business administration at Babson Institute, Wellesley, Mass., and then worked for a Boston bank.

He became a partner in a new company in Scottsdale, near Pittsburgh, that was a contractor of electric and telephone lines. His wife, Margaret, is from Scottsdale. They have two children, John W. 3d, who is 6, and Susan, 5.

From 1945 to 1951, he was a sales representative in New York City for American Airlines, a job that gave him contacts to prove valuable to a travel agent.

In addition to the travel agency, he is more or less of a silent partner of A. Emery Lord's in the Associated Insurance Brokers of Pottstown.

The tall, 195-pound Storb is a director of Pottstown Savings and Loan association and Mt. Zion cemetery and a member of Pottstown Lodge 814, BPOE, and Brookside Country club. His home is on Sunnybrook road, just east of the borough line.

He has four acres of ground that he is trying to make into lawn. This, he has found, is hobby enough. "I think I'll get a tractor," he commented.

BYRON H. "PETE" HUNSBERGER, 224 King street, is a man with an out-of-school knowledge of Pottstown's younger set. At 34, he's old enough to be realistic about it and young enough to be sympathetic.

Having had a long-standing ambition to go into business for himself, Hunsberger left his job as clerk for Spicer Manufacturing division three years ago to go into the luncheonette business.

He had a luncheonette at King and Evans streets the first year, then on Nov. 27, 1950 moved to larger quarters at 22 North Hanover street, where he had a dance floor with juke box and booths installed in the back of the regular luncheonette.

When he started Hunsberger's luncheonette, he found he was working 16 hours a day, six days a week. He said with a smile that by now, he's pared this down to 13 or 14 hours a day.

Comparing the present younger set with the set he knew when he was a 'teen-ager, Hunsberger said the present one "is more independent, less anxious to hear what the older folks want to tell them."

He said the Korean war has been responsible for making youths of draft age tend to be more serious, but also has been responsible for the occasional wildness among youths who think they should have a "last fling" just before the Army gets them.

Most of the popular melodies achieve and lose the favor of the bobby-soxers with expected rapidity, Hunsberger said, but there are a few melodies that stay in favor for a surprisingly long period.

Among the trends he has noticed in the younger set's behavior are one away from jitter-bugging and one toward more and more casual dress (except on Saturday and Sunday nights).

Hunsberger came to Pottstown seven years ago after 3½ years in the Army Air Force, serving in England, France, Belgium and Germany. He was a clerk in the engineering section.

Although the tall, muscular, quick-moving Hunsberger can trade slang with any of his 'teen-age patrons, he also has a vocabulary and range of knowledge that can be downright scholarly.

This may be a result of the fact that his father, Byron K. Hunsberger, an alumnus of Pottstown High school, has been an educator for many years. The father now has a private school in Norristown, where the son lived before the Army.

Although Hunsberger enjoys being his own boss, he said he wished it left him more time for his family and his interests in sports. His wife, Dorothy, works in the luncheonette. They have a son, Edward, who'll be 5 in February.

He is a member of First Presbyterian church, but does not have time to be active in any other organizations.

Scouts Now Ready for Outdoors After Week of Rain

With a resolve not to surrender to the weatherman, Pottstown's Boy Scouts renewed former plans for weekend hikes at this week's meetings.

Several troops had to postpone such jaunts projected for the past Saturday and the previous weekend because of rain.

St. Aloysius troop 12 passed the time painting its meeting room while flood waters swirled along the route of a hike they had planned twice in vain.

The Scouts had hoped to journey to Swamp creek Saturday to lay out a campsite near Palladino's grove, but the steady downpour forced them to hold off.

The troop will try the hike again this Saturday after putting their equipment in order at their meeting.

SCOUTMASTER ROBERT MAUGER said his scouts have received permission to buy rough lumber to build eight cabins on the Swamp creek site.

St. Aloysius Scouts are using leftover paint from the school cafeteria remodeling to redecorate their meeting room.

Grace Lutheran troop 15 renewed plans for its hike to Spregel's run after their hopes for a clear day Saturday were washed away in the flood waters.

The troop is getting ready for a session with its board of review and needs to take the hike so the Scouts can pass Second Class cooking requirements.

Troop 15 also is mobilizing for a recruiting drive, with Scoutmaster Leonard Yerger offering a prize to the Scout who brings in the most new members.

American Legion troop 1's camp at Fagleyville had dried off enough last night to allow some signalling practice by the Scouts.

Thomas Landry and Albert Zink have passed the troop board of review and are now Second Class Scouts.

St. James Lutheran troop 18 has set up telegraph keys in their meeting rooms for some Morse code signalling. By using a transformer and enough wire the Scouts can send telegraph messages a considerable distance.

First Presbyterian Troop 3 held an "emergency service" quiz at their meeting with scouts answering Scoutmaster William Glenney's questions on what to do in case of such emergencies as fires, drownings or auto accidents.

Zion's Reformed Troop 5 discussed a parents' night they plan to hold soon.

Ralph Rhoads, junior assistant scoutmaster, opened the meeting and talked on the Scouting Fair to be held next year.

First Methodist Troop 4 is now working on its Indian handicraft project. Robert Marquette, who studied Indian lore at the Philmont Scout ranch in New Mexico, is the instructor.

FIRESTONE TROOP 19 is getting ready for a Parents' night and Court of Honor to be held Tuesday at its headquarters in the Firestone personnel building.

Three new Tenderfoot Scouts and five recently passed by the board of review for Second Class rank will get their new badges at that time.

Also to be awarded at the Court of Honor is a neckerchief for the best scout at Delmont during Summer camping.

Plastic Liberty Bell neckerchief slides will be presented to scouts in the troop who participated in the recent "get out the vote" campaign.

On Monday the leaders of the Firestone scouting family, including leaders of cubs, scouts and sea scouts, will hold a plans meeting for the coming year.

Institutional representatives Ernest T. Handley and Roger Firestone will be on hand to confer with the scout leaders.

Last night the Firestone troop discussed the coming Parents night and worked on a knotboard and model bridges at their regular meeting.

Scoutmaster Edward Benkowski introduced two new scouts and two former scouts who have rejoined the troop.

The new scouts are Daniel Mulder and Barry Fillman. The returnees are Thomas Yeager and Kenneth West.

TRINITY REFORMED TROOP 6 completed its envelope stuffing project for the Lions club at this week's meeting. New Scoutmaster Joe Bobb was in charge.

Dick Miller opened the meeting by leading the salute to the flag and the scout oath.

Those helping stuff envelopes were Donald Bleim, Lee Caleen, Johnny Freese, Paul Atkins, Harry Royer, Dick Saraceni, John Hartenstein, Bill Schmoeyer and Rodney Elliott.

New Bedford Mayor, Teresa Wright Gets Divorce From Writer

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Nov. 25 (AP)—Actress Teresa Wright, sobbing bitterly, today divorced author-screenwriter Niven Busch with testimony he made her feel "useless."

The beautiful brunette Oscar winner told the judge:

"My husband made me feel useless by refusing to allow me the right to have anything to say in the care and raising of my children and the running of my house."

"He said I was incapable of making these decisions and that he would make all our decisions for us."

Sometimes, she went on, Busch would "force me to listen to him by pushing me into a corner."

One indictment charged the 37-year-old mayor and two retired New Bedford policemen, Lt. Alfred Figueira, 57, and Detective Arthur A. Dufresne, 52, conspired to cause the city's vice squad to refrain from prosecuting gamblers.

Another of six indictments charged the mayor, New Bedford City councillor President Leonard Healy, Figueira and four other men, two of whom were not identified, with conspiring "to hinder, delay and impede" investigation and apprehension of armed robbers who held up a gambling club.

Loot has been variously estimated from $2000 to $11,000.

District Attorney Maurice M. Lyons said all would be asked to surrender immediately for Superior court action. Mayor Peirce, in Washington, said he "was shocked to learn of the indictments and will return to New Bedford promptly."

State police raids in September brought 76 arrests and touched off a grand jury investigation of conditions in New Bedford.

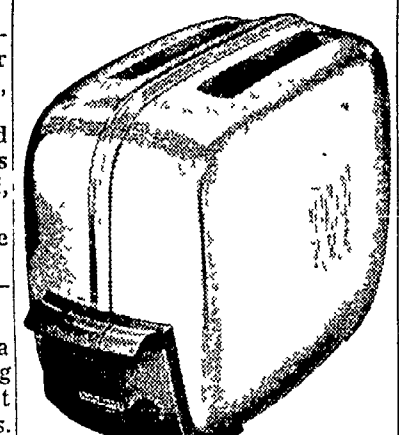

TRANSFER SET PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25 (AP)—Pittsburgh's "labor priest," the Rev. Charles Owen Rice, transfers from St. Bridget's Roman Catholic church to St. Joseph's church at Natrona, Pa. Dec. 4.

In the United States, girls born in 1952 can expect to live to be 70 years of age, boys 65.

Hoffman Says Business To Confront Challenge

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Paul Hoffman said today American business will be confronted with its greatest challenge in the Eisenhower administration.

"This is going to be an administration in which business will have a voice," the former mutual security director told the overseas writers.

"In two years, business will have to demonstrate that it can work with government not only for its benefit but for the benefit of all the people."

Finance Officers Find Palms Itch After Payday

FORT HOOD, Tex., Nov. 25 (AP)—Capt. Stanley L. Martyniak and Lt. Mike W. Tipps, post finance officers, discovered their palms always itched after payday.

Medical officers said the two were allergic to money. "It's probably the ink in the bills," a doctor said.

Baboons Raid Home, Do a Lot of Damage

CAPETOWN, South Africa, Nov. 25 (AP)—Seventy baboons raided the holiday home of British millionaire yachtsman T. O. M. Sopwith and did a lot of damage.

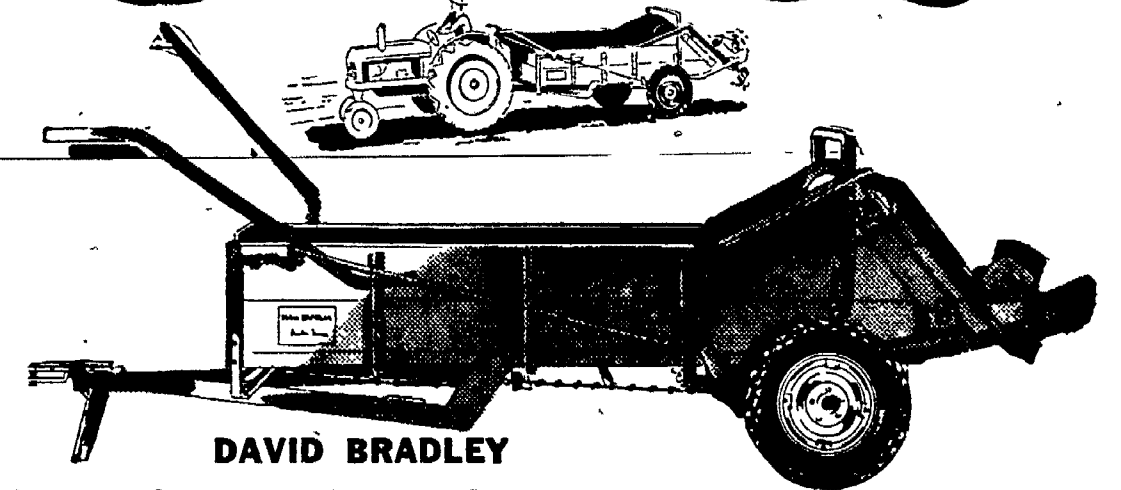

One intruder wandered into a servants' room where he was attacked by a native boy wielding a chair. The animal picked up the boy—chair and all—and hurled him through a window.

Baboons tore colored tiles from the roof and threw them at servants, who finally scared off the invaders.

TWO WOMEN ARE APPOINTED TO HIGH POSTS

Eisenhower Also Names
Arthur Summerfield as Postmaster General

MRS. PRIEST IS TREASURER;
MRS. HOBBY HEAD OF FCA

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—President-Elect Dwight D. Eisenhower today named two women to high Government posts and chose Arthur E. Summerfield, chairman of the Republican National committee, as postmaster general.

He appointed Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, a Democrat and original director of the Women's Army Corps, administrator of the Federal Security Agency, and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest of Bountiful, Utah, as treasurer of the United States.

Eisenhower said Mrs. Hobby had been asked to attend cabinet meetings because of "her vital importance" in directing Government social and welfare work although the post does not technically have cabinet rank.

Summerfield will resign as Republican national chairman before taking his cabinet post, it was announced. His appointment as postmaster general left two cabinet jobs still to be filled—secretary of labor and secretary of commerce.

EISENHOWER DESCRIBED both Mrs. Hobby and Mrs. Priest as "outstanding women" and said their job appointments were the "first of other appointments of women in the coming administration."

"I am honored to have them participate in the affairs of the Government of the United States," he said. "I am confident that they will be worthwhile additions to the public service."

Mrs. Hobby, publisher of the Houston, Tex., Post, will succeed Oscar R. Ewing, Mrs. Priest, active in the Republican party Women's division, will succeed another woman, Georgia Neese Clark.

Summerfield will replace Jesse M. Donaldson.

The appointments were announced shortly after Rep. John Taber, of New York, known as a "watchdog" of Federal expenses, came out of Eisenhower's office with a prediction that Government expenses could be trimmed by $15 billion in 1954.

Taber estimated they could be held to $65 billion, with a balanced budget and a possible slight tax reduction. The present budget is $79 billion.

There was no word from Eisenhower's headquarters as to when he would leave on his trip to Korea. The possibility that he could reach there in time to spend Thanksgiving with the troops appeared to be fading.

Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland said in Baltimore today he had an appointment to call on Eisenhower in New York tomorrow at 3 p. m., Pottstown time.

Summerfield Gives Objective as Leader

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Arthur E. Summerfield, chosen today to be the next postmaster general, said in taking over the job his main objective would be to improve all branches of the Postoffice department and increase "its morale."

He added in a formal statement that he plans to operate the postal system in the service of the people. Summerfield's appointment must be confirmed by the Senate before he takes over.

Meany New Head Of AFL; Renews CIO Merger Bid

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—George Meany, stocky 58-year-old former plumber, today became president of the American Federation of Labor, and his first act was to renew a merger bid to the CIO.

Meany expressed confidence that the nation's two big union organizations could sit down and bury their past differences to work out a merger satisfactory to both.

A veteran union leader with 30 years in various labor posts, Meany was unanimously selected by the AFL's 14-member Executive Council to succeed the late William Green as the AFL's president. Green died the past Friday after serving more than a quarter century as the AFL's top leader.

Meany had been the AFL's secretary-treasurer under Green, and during the past several years of Green's declining health, had been the major leader of the AFL's eight million members.

Named by the AFL Council to succeed Meany as secretary-treasurer was William E. Schnitzler, 46, of Chicago, president of the AFL Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union.

The team of Meany and Schnitzler brings a more youthful set of leaders to the big AFL organization. Many more prominent and older labor leaders were passed up to give the AFL second spot to Schnitzler.

Meany's proposal for a reunion of the labor giants drew a friendly response from Emil Rieve, senior vice president of the CIO. Rieve said in New York: "I welcome his optimism about unity between the CIO and the AFL and I hope his optimism will bring satisfactory results." Rieve is president of the Textile Workers of America.

The bid for renewed merger negotiations with the CIO comes at a time when the smaller and newer labor organization also is changing officers. CIO leaders are meeting in Atlantic City, N. J., beginning Friday to select a president to succeed the late Philip Murray. He died Nov. 9.

Treason Trial Draws Out Testimony Conspirators Riddled Army of Czechs

VIENNA, Austria, Nov. 25 (AP)—Communist Czechoslovakia's treason trial of Reds who once had Stalin's trust drew testimony from two of the 14 prisoners today that anti-Moscow conspirators had riddled the Czech army and security police.

Karel Svab, former deputy minister of national security, and Lt. Gen. Bedrich Reicin, former deputy defense minister, took the stand before the Prague purge court and completed a stream of confessions that began with the opening of the trial the past Thursday.

All 14 now have volubly pleaded guilty.

Svab, one of the three non-Jews in the accused group, said in accounts broadcast by the Prague radio that the traitors were uncovered only with his arrest and other "Zionist, Trotskyite and bourgeois nationalist" followers of Rudolf Slansky.

REICIN, ONE of the 11 Jews, followed Svab to the stand and was quoted as making a similar confession that "Zionists and traitors" had held high posts in the nation's defense.

The chief defendants are Slansky, former Communist boss of Czechoslovakia and former Foreign Minister Vlado Clementis, accused of treason, sabotage and espionage against President Klement Gottwald's government.

President Congratulates Heroes

President Truman congratulates three Marine heroes of the fighting in Korea after presenting the medal of honor to them in a White House ceremony, Nov. 24. Left to right: Pfc. Hector A. Troop Concentrations Hit by French Planes

HANOI, Indochina, Nov. 25 (AP)—French fighters and bombers today plastered Vietminh rebel troop concentrations and supply depots north of strongly fortified Na San, where French Union forces are dug in for an expected all-out enemy assault.

Forty fighter planes and a squadron of B-26 bombers hit hard at Vietminh positions around Sonla, 15 miles northwest of Na San, in an effort to ease the pressure building up for what is regarded as certain to be a big frontal smash at the Na San Air base.

The French high command reported the day was calm at Na San. The Communist-led Vietminh troops were believed to be regrouping after having failed in their first probing attack Sunday night. The French said the rebels lost 300 killed and wounded.

Cox Says Lattimore Got Foundation Cash For Subversive Aims

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Rep. Cox (D-Ga.) said today Owen Lattimore, former State department adviser, obtained large sums of money from the multi-million-dollar Rockefeller foundation and the money was used "for subversive purposes."

The Georgia legislator, chairman of a special house inquiry committee, also said the Rockefeller foundation and other tax-exempt groups made "a great number of grants" to persons disloyal to the United States.

In New York, Dean Rusk, president of the Rockefeller foundation, commented: "The Rockefeller foundation has reported the facts on these grants to the Cox committee in our reply to the questionnaire sent us by the committee."

"We are prepared to discuss any cases fully when we go before the committee."

COX'S STATEMENT about foundation grants to disloyal persons drew quick rebuttal from Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, associate director of the Ford foundation, who told the committee:

"I am perfectly certain that no major foundation has even consciously gone into anything that would weaken the American system."

The House group is investigating whether any tax-free organizations have used their huge financial resources to aid un-American or subversive activities.

Putnam Urges Government Control Of Prices, Wages Continue 14 Months

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—(OPS) indicated ceilings will be Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam has recommended that the Government's power to control prices and wages be extended 14 months beyond the present April 30 deadline, it was learned today.

In fact, officials said, Putnam is seeking somewhat stronger control powers than provided under present laws.

At the same time, the White House discounted a report from Sen. Maybank (D. SC) that he had information President Truman might end price-wage controls before Congress convenes Jan. 3.

Roger Tubby, acting presidential press secretary, said Truman has no such plans.

SIMULTANEOUSLY, outgoing Price Stabilizer Tighe E. Woods suspended price ceilings on all women's and misses' clothing, effective at once.

The Office of Price Stabilization, by Congress.

WOODS announced last night he was quitting. He said he was fed up with administering what he termed the "weak law" given him by Congress.

Under arrest are nine men and two women, suspects in "the perfect crime organization" of which Franklin boasted, officers said. Three of the suspects were arrested in Stockton and one in San Francisco.

Detective S R McCaleb said the gang specialized in market, bar and liquor store banditry, chiefly in the San Francisco area until a month ago, when Franklin came down here to recruit fresh accomplices. In southern California they pulled about six "substantial" holdups — $3000 to $4000 each — said McCaleb. The full list has not been compiled.

They never actually tagged Vishinsky, the Soviet foreign minister who is here as chief Russian delegate to the UN Assembly, but a mission aid said he would see that Vishinsky got the books.

Elder Lightfoot Solomon Michaux, radio preacher, and Pastor Basil A. Malof, refugee Russian Protestant minister, asked Vishinsky in an accompanying letter to give Stalin one. They underlined the Sermon on the Mount and asked the Russians to accept it as a "platform of peace."

US, 20 OTHERS TO URGE VOTING ON INDIA'S PLAN

Compromise Idea to End
War May Get Ballots
Later in Week

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 25 (AP)—The United States and 20 other countries agreed today to urge priority in UN voting for an Indian compromise plan to end the Korean War.

This action came amid indications that more changes demanded by the United States would be made before a final vote is taken in the UN Political committee, perhaps later this week.

Sir Percy Spender, Australian delegate and chairman of the group of 21 powers, announced the decision. He said it was understood, also that necessary textual clarification would be sought on a major provision in the Indian resolution dealing with the final disposition of prisoners.

Delegates from the meeting would not comment further but American sources had said earlier today the US would not agree to give the Indian plan priority over a resolution sponsored by the 21 powers unless there was agreement to accept the changes asked by the US.

DURING THE MEETING British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, a central figure in a split between the US and Britain the past week on terms of the Indian proposal, left for London by air.

He said he believed there is a good chance of agreement of the majority of the UN on the Indian resolution "maybe with some clarifications."

Eden said the rejection of the Indian plan by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky yesterday should not deter the majority from trying to find peace.

The main stumbling-block was reported to be the last paragraph on disposition of prisoners. As amended by the Indian delegation, it would leave to the UN the disposition of all prisoners of war in Korea who were not repatriated after five months.

Poem About Animals' Latest Newcomers Is Made Into Play at Washington School

By CARL DENGLER

The Fifth grade at Washington school planned and presented a play from the poem, "How to Tell the Wild Animals," by Carolyn Wells. Six children drew pictures to represent the wild animals in the poem.

The animals with their respective artists were: Lion, by Teddy Baer; tiger by Hillary Alexander and Terry Kohler; leopard by Daird Bechtel; bear by Kathleen Churach; crocodile by David Reidenour and hyena by James Townsley.

A tree with a chameleon which no one could see on it was drawn by our teacher, Mrs. Griffin.

The leading character, Hillary Alexander, dressed in shorts and a jungle hat, strolled through the "forest" to meet these wild animals. Dick Shaner as a lion, James Townsley as a tiger and hyena, Teddy Baer as a leopard, Linda Hartenstein as a bear, and David Reidenour as a crocodile. Readers hear our new Glee club sing. We were Bonnie Smith and Carole Lasky.

The latest newcomers to Mrs. Weimer's room are Dolores and Sandy, two gold fish that Charles Davidheiser brought. We are happy to have Charles share some of his fish with us. The boys and girls like to watch the fish eat their food.

The children made their first frieze with tempera paints. Each child had a chance to paint some of the scenery in tempera colors. The children drew pictures of Indians and Pilgrims, then they made villages of Indians and Pilgrims.

The frieze also was made to show them celebrating "The First Thanksgiving." We learned many things about the Pilgrims.

Miss Pringle entertained us with a puppet show called "The Visitor." Each child was told as well as shown the right kinds of food to eat to be healthy. We participated in the "Thanks Giving Program" held on Friday, Nov. 21 in the gym. We liked to hear our new Glee club sing. We want to thank Mrs. Neff who directs it.

Kindergarten Pupils at Rupert Study Different Methods of Transportation

By MICHAEL MALLISON and CAROLE DINNINI

Chug chug, toot toot, beep beep! These are just a few of the sounds that can be heard in the Kindergarten at the Rupert school right now. Mrs. Weber's children are learning about different types of transportation. They built a sailboat with their blocks and have taken many exciting voyages in it.

They talked about the different types of boats and what they are used for. Then they drew pictures of some of these. They built a harbor, bridge, and lighthouse. This was certainly a busy place with boats delivering food and materials to the docks.

When asked how these things get to the store some of the children told how trucks and trains are used for this. David Morrell brought a train to school and they saw the different types of cars. The children drew pictures of these too.

THEY PLAYED they were taking a train trip. Tickets were bought from the ticket agent and once on the train, the conductor and engineer saw to it that they had a

Fifth Grade Room Finishes Project on New England States

Mrs. Neff's Fifth grade room finished projects on the New England States. Philip Welch and Dalton Fine made scenes from cardboard boxes. The rest of the class made maps and wrote reports about the New England States.

Since our class is now studying the Middle Atlantic States in geography, we have decided to make a mural on Pennsylvania. On the mural we are showing the following: the Pennsylvania colony, the cities of Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Pittsburgh and Pottstown.

On the last picture there will be a map of Pennsylvania with its rivers, cities, railroads and mountains.

THE BOYS AND GIRLS serving as chairmen of the different committees are: Jean Miller, Bill Firth, Marianne Calabrese, Eugenia Kulp, Billy Donahue, Philip Welch. The reporters are Eugenia Kulp and Philip Welch.

6th Graders Make Study of New Books

By JUDY UNSTEAD

Book Week is almost over. The Washington School received many new books.

The sixth grade took the books for a day and read a little of each book. Then they made pictures of the book covers. Some very good ones were "Royal Red," "At the Zoo," "The Apple and the Arrow," and "All Falling Down." On November 26 the books will be in circulation.

On Friday, Nov. 22 we had an assembly. The third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grades got together. A few of the girls from the sixth grade had a play called "Mary had a Little Lamb." Afterward we had the pictures for book week. The aquariums were cleaned this week. We got four new snails for the aquariums to help keep them clean.

The class colored Thanksgiving pictures for Thanksgiving.

First Graders Learn Pilgrim Building Methods

By CARL DENGLER

The pupils in Mrs. Wolfe's first grade room are getting first hand knowledge on how the Pilgrims and Indians built their homes.

Robert Orr and Donald Floyd have brought in Lincoln logs so that the children could build two cabins.

Billy Sevast and Billy Fosnocht brought in people and articles to add to the village. The project included an Indian village and the study of Indians.

Annual Community Rites Scheduled At Good Shepherd Church Tonight

The annual community Thanksgiving service will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed, Boyertown.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. H. I. Carmichael, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Congregational church, Boyertown.

The service will open with an organ prelude with Warren Hohl at the organ and followed with the processional hymn, "Praise to God, Immortal Praise." The solemn declaration, choral Amen, call to wor-

Farmers Bank Plans Drive-In Window Service

The Farmers National Bank and Trust company of Boyertown will install drive-in services for their customers, it was announced yesterday.

The announcement was made following the approval of the board of directors to purchase adjoining property to the bank's South Washington street location.

Acquiring the property makes it possible, because of numerous requests, for the bank to furnish its patrons and customers with the first drive-in window service in Boyertown, the board said.

Plans are being completed to build an addition to the rear of the present building. This addition will make it possible to have an enlarged bookkeeping room to service the increasing number of checking and savings accounts and also to provide drive-in window service.

Other plans of alterations to provide better service are also being discussed.

Holiday 'Break' Begins For 1400 Pupils Today

The more than 1400 pupils of the Boyertown School district will begin their Thanksgiving vacation this afternoon when the schools will close to re-open Monday at 8:40 a. m., according to supervising principal, George B. Swinehart.

Children in the Lincoln and Washington elementary schools yesterday received their report cards for the first quarter of the school year.

Seniors Report Play Is Making Progress As Cast Rehearses

Committees for the Senior class play of the Boyertown High school reported yesterday that progress is being made for presentation of their play.

The ticket committee, sponsored by Winifred Y. Moyer and Mrs. Ada Kweder, announced that tickets are now on sale for the production, "Ramshackle Inn," a mystery-farce in three acts. It will be presented in the high school auditorium on Wednesday, Dec. 10 at 8 p. m.

For the past few weeks, the stage committee, sponsored by Franklin H. Gottshall, have been working on the sets for the Broadway success and reported that they are adding the "final touches" in preparation for the play.

A list of ushers were released by Violet M. White. It includes Joan Arnold, Gayle Davidheiser, Olga Diaachynsky, Joanne Fritz, Shirley Hafer, Catherine Hare, Shirley Heydt, Nancy Kriebel, Mary Leister, Patricia Long, Margaret McBride, Janet Moatz, Janet Spohn and Patsy Tabor.

THE BOYERTOWN High school dance band, under the direction of G. Richard Grabert, has been rehearsing for several weeks and will be well prepared for the Dec. 10 production.

Mrs. Arline H. Fryer, director of the play, said yesterday that "development for the presentation of 'Ramshackle Inn' is coming along according to schedule. Members of the cast have memorized their lines and next week we shall 'roll up' our sleeves and really go to work."

Prisoner Recaptured Because of Loud Snoring

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Nov. 25 (AP)—Burton H. Snedaker, 31, of Carbondale, Pa., enjoyed short spell of freedom from prison today because he snored too loud.

Snedaker walked away from the Broome county jail farm yesterday and later outran a deputy sheriff in a chase.

Neil Ford, another deputy, was checking a farm owned by relatives of the prisoner when he heard snoring in a barn. He and two other deputies awakened Snedaker and, after a brief struggle, took him back to jail.

Snedaker is serving a six-month sentence for theft of a motorcycle. He had been due for release before Christmas.

Junior Departments Plan Using Finished Quarters on Sunday

Renovation of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed Sunday school rooms is nearing completion and the rooms for the children's departments will be ready for use Sunday.

The Beginners, Nursery-Kindergarten, Primary, Junior and Junior High departments will assemble in the newly-finished rooms for the first time Sunday. Other departments will meet in the church sanctuary until Sunday, Dec. 7 at which time dedication services will be conducted.

Canvassers who have been soliciting funds for the cost of the renovation project are completing their visits this week and as of last night, nearly $10,000 had been turned over to Ernest H. Reifnsnyder and Gordon Hunsberger, treasurer and secretary of the church, respectively.

Mrs. Priest Balances Own Finances, Too

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest of Utah, appointed treasurer of the United States today, is a housewife who handles most of the family finances and whose checkbook "always balances."

And, Mrs. Priest said, she thinks it is a fine thing for women to have a voice in the nation's "financial housekeeping."

Lately assistant national chairman in charge of the Women's division of the Republican party, the 47-year-old Mrs. Priest has been a national committeewoman from Utah since 1944.

But, she says, she has been "interested and busy in politics practically all my life," ever since as a 10-year-old she used to baby-sit for women voters on Election Day because her mother was a precinct committeewoman.

Meany's Bid for Unity Is Praised by Rieve

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—A bid by new AFL President George Meany for AFL-CIO unity drew praise today from Emil Rieve, senior vice president of the CIO.

Rieve, president of the Textile Workers Union of America, said of Meany's bid:

"I welcome his optimism about unity between the CIO and the AFL and I hope his optimism will bring satisfactory results."

The Dart Ball tournament being held at Brownback's Evangelical and Reformed church each Tuesday night is in progress and the 26 men of the church who are participating are enjoying the fellowship and fun of the contest. Four teams have been formed with Gile Trythall, Edgar Peiffer, William Peiffer and Harry Frick as captains. The batting average of each player is recorded and at present William Krug is the leader.

The Women's guild of Brownback's church is planning a Christmas party for Monday at which time there will be an exchange of gifts. The Ladies aid of the church plans a similar party for Dec. 10. Altar flowers at Brownback's church were presented by the Girls guild of the church.

Several members of the choir of Brownback's church will accompany the pastor, the Rev. Elmer E. Fahring, to the Reformed church home for the Aged, Wyncote, on Sunday afternoon when a religious service will be conducted.

Sylvanus Keeley and Elizabeth Keeley, Spring City, visited Anna Nicum at "Maple Shade Farm."

The Rev. and Mrs. Elmer E. Fahring had as visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rehner, Pottsville.

Bethel Methodist, Brownback's Evangelical and Reformed, Parkerford Baptist and Church of the Brethren, Parkerford, will join in a Union of Churches Thanksgiving service tonight at 8 p. m. in the Brethren church, Parkerford.

The Rev. Alvin S. Alderfer, pastor of the host church, will preach the sermon and ministers of the other churches, the Rev. Thomas E. Anderman, the Rev. Elmer E. Fahring and the Rev. Earle Marcus will take part in the service.

The Sunday School board of Bethel Methodist church met at the home of James W. Moyer, Ellis Woods road, at which time plans for the Christmas activities of the

Doehler Unit Votes Thanksgiving Baskets

Doehler Mutual Benefit association agreed to send seven Thanksgiving baskets of food to families of needy employees who have been out of work due to prolonged illness at the organization's meeting last night.

The 15 directors present also agreed to send baskets to needy families for Christmas.

A move to appropriate money to send employees serving in the armed forces was approved unanimously by the directors. The amount was not set.

James A. Orr, vice president who presided at the meeting, announced that Merle F. Rambo, president, will soon appoint a committee to nominate officers in January. Rambo was not present at the meeting due to illness.

CANN AND SAUL WILL APPEAL ASSESSMENT

'Unfair Multiplication' Hit
At Meeting in Steel
Firm's Office

REPRESENTATIVES GATHER AS RESIDENTS AIR ISSUE

The Cann and Saul Steel company of Royersford will appeal the recently increased property assessments by the county, George H. Philson, president of the company, said last night.

Following the meeting in the offices of Cann and Saul in which the increase was bitterly attacked as "unfair and unjust," the steel company decided to take positive action on their assessment which was increased threefold.

The assessment was charged by the meeting as being a "smart idea to keep other industries out of the county," Philson said. He added that assessments for some firms had been multiplied three times. One firm, he said, had its assessment increased four times.

The industrialists meeting was held at the same time borough residents were meeting in the Royersford-High school to air the assessment question.

"WE THINK it is unfair for the county to multiply the assessments of industries here," Philson said. "The Cann and Saul Steel company is serving notice that we shall appeal the assessment."

Philson said he was not sure what action would be taken by the other firms represented at the meeting.

The industries which took part in the meeting employ between 1500 and 2000 men and meet an annual payroll in excess of $5,000,000, Philson said.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. Carroll Roussey, Royersford, was admitted to Phoenixville hospital.

Mrs. George Mowrey, Spring City, was discharged.

GIRLS EXCHANGE NAMES

Girl Scouts of Spring City's Senior Troop 64 exchanged names for gift-giving at their coming Christmas party when they met Monday night in the Methodist church. Plans also were discussed for a skating party. A group was asked to contact the churches to appeal for toys. Thirteen girls and two leaders attended the meeting.

U of P Assessment Adviser Deluged Under Question Barrage at Meeting

Royersford property owners were still up in the air last night on the assessment question.

Some 200 property owners fired a barrage of questions at Morton Lustig, Institute of Local Government staff member, at a meeting in the high school auditorium, but were told that any change they wanted in the assessments would have to be made in an appeal to the county assessment board.

Lustig represented the University of Pennsylvania technical group which worked on the re-assessment of borough property.

In addition to Lustig on the platform were the heads of the two local taxing bodies and Borough Assessor Benjamin Fry. L. E. Johnson served as chairman.

Police Press Probe Info Legion Post Haul

Spring City police continued their investigation yesterday into the theft of two 16-pound turkeys, some liquor, cigarettes and $10 in change from the post home of Walter Caffrey American Legion post, North Main street, Spring City.

Blaine Lee, treasurer of the post, home association, discovered Monday at 11 a. m., the post house had been entered during the night, probably after 12:45 a. m., Monday, when the building was locked up.

The turkeys, frozen, taken from a walk-in refrigerator, were to have been given away on award night.

Entrance to the building was gained by jimmying a front window. Police Chief John Hanebury, who launched the investigation, said the cash register also had been pried open and some change, approximately $10, was removed. The loot also included five bottles of liquor and several packages of cigarettes.

Area Woman Cited For Hospital Work

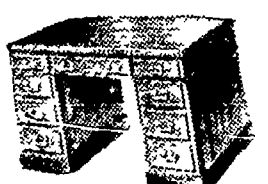

A Royersford RD 1 woman has been honored for her work at the polio convalescent ward in Sacred Heart hospital, Norristown.

Mrs. James Major was one of 15 volunteer workers given blue and gold emblems for their uniforms.

Emblems were presented by Mrs. Walter Wagner, Ardmore, a member of the patient care committee and formerly a member of the executive committee of the Norristown chapter.

Among those receiving commendations at the reception this past Monday at the home of Mrs. Edward Long, Norristown, was the Rev. John T. Williston, Oaks. The Rev. Williston received his commendation for weekly assistance in water therapy at the YWCA pool.

Grid Stars in Twin-Boroughs to Be Honored at Affairs Monday, Tuesday

Football teams from the Twin-Borough high schools will be guests next week after the grid season for both schools closes.

Spring City High gridders will be honored at a turkey banquet Monday at 7 p. m. in the Liberty Fire company hall in Spring City.

Edward Snow, principal of Ardmore Junior High school, will be main speaker at the affair.

The Royersford squad will be guests at the Lions-sponsored 10th Annual Football Night at the Spring-Ford Country club on Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock. The Eagles will hear Al Severance, Villanova Basketball coach, speak. Severance is one of the ten top hoop coaches in the country.

Hospital Auxiliary Holds Early Fete For Christmas

A Christmas party highlighted the November meeting of Inter-Community Memorial hospital auxiliary Monday night in the Baptist recreation center, Royersford.

During a brief business session preceding the yule fete, Mrs. Arthur Wolfe, chairman of ways and means committee, reported $136.40 was realized at a recent card party sponsored by the auxiliary.

Mrs. J. Carroll Deisher, president, said plans have been completed for the annual Christmas party for the children of the auxiliary, to be held Saturday, Dec. 13, at 2 p. m., in the Baptist recreation room.

The program consisted of group singing with Mrs. Thomas Tucker at the piano. Santa Claus arrived and distributed gifts and candy canes to all. Games and refreshments closed the social hour.

The hospitality committee serving comprised Marie Hilborn, Mrs. Jesse Burns, Mrs. John Diller and Mrs. Ernest Bancroft.

DEATHS-FUNERALS

The second infant twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justus Boettger Jr., SPRING CITY RD 1, died early yesterday in Pottstown hospital.

The twins were born Thursday. The other one died that day.

Surviving in addition to the father and the mother, Betty Jean (Moses) Boettger, are the paternal grandparents, Justus and Elizabeth (Finkbner) Boettger, Spring City RD 1, and the maternal grandparents, Ernest and Edith (Campbell) Moses.

Graveside services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Zion's Lutheran cemetery, near Spring City, from a funeral home in Parkersford.

Perk Peeks

By Gary Trollinger

There were a couple of guys over at that North Coventry-West Pottsgrove game the past Saturday that made you realize that in this day of assorted Marilyn Monroes, imitations thereof and hot-rodgers there are still some kids left who seem to want to play football.

You had to give everybody—the players, the coaches and even the fans—credit for even turning up on such a chilly and slippery occasion. The whole thing sort of reminded us of a defrosted refrigerator that was freezing up again without anybody bothering to get rid of the water.

Miniature lakes dotted the playing field and the ground itself was soft enough to have been used as a Jergens' Lotion testimonial.

But two fellows in particular caught our eyes as the type of guys we'd like on our football team any day. Single plays made by both remain foremost in our minds when recapitulating the Slopbowl of 1952.

We can still see the picture of West Pottsgrove's Paul Strzelecki being hit hard time after time by hordes of red (for a half) and white (for a half)—shirted tacklers. Strze on one stampee around his right end met the end of the trail right in front of us as we stood around soaking up the country moisture on the sidelines.

He was hit hard by the usual tackling gang of Wildcats and sent sprawling into the go, but was up on his feet in about three seconds, flipping the ball to the nearest official with an expectant look on his face. He just seemed in a hurry to get back in that huddle and run it again.

And running 29 times and nine times in succession under any conditions is not recommended as the most exhilarating form of exercise in existence. You have to hand it to the guy. He just seems to thrive on drive, body contact and carrying batches of tacklers on smart hauls.

THE OTHER PLAY we remember also came about with Strze carrying, but it wasn't so much his toting in this instance. This time it was the dogged solo drive of Norco defensive end and captain Fred Kerlin through a mass of blockers that ended with a jarring wide open stop made on Strzelecki.

Here again, you've got the kind of fellow that isn't particularly conscious of the risk of his own limbs. He saw a chance to forward his team's position and didn't hesitate to throw his whole being into the onslaught.

Those two fellows — Strzelecki and Kerlin — kept that kind of thing up all afternoon. Strze also played a bang up game at defensive tackle and Kerlin's backfield bulling was as good as we've seen by a guard who quick-changed into a ball-toter for the purpose of weighting down the Wildcat pony-express corps.

Then, too, there was the vigorous punting of Kerlin, averaging 36 yards per attempt, not counting the one that was blocked by his own teammate, keeping the Falcons close to the nest continually.

WP's Lloyd Carpenter still was top man in booting 'em, though. The slender end had one blocked by Norco but got 238 yards out of six others, including one for 74 lengths, for a 39.6 average. Not bad for high schoolers.

While we're discussing guys like Fred and Paul — what you call hungry ball players — you can't leave out Duke Kinckner, the Norco quarterback who never spared any grit either.

On a dry field, possibly the Duker might have made his own show. On a wet one he just barely was relegated to second best by the aforementioned pair. Duke carried 17 times for 46 yards.

Not bad, but when a guy carries all but six of his team's games with the authority Strze did, it's hard to beat him.

If you want to count passing, though, Duke almost did have him beat. Kinckner got 36 yards on three completions out of 12 for a total offense of 82. Strzelecki rolled up 83 yards rushing on his basket full of attempts. Strzelecki does not pass, but then you can't have all conservative pinocchio players in the crew.

TOMORROW'S Big Four finales at Boyertown and Spring City have taken on a different tint this year. Usually the Bear-Upper Perk (East Greenville before this time) tiff and Buc-Royersford games are pivotal tilts that definitely decide a championship either way.

This year the worst that can happen is for Royersford to lose a game. Even then, should the Perks down B-town, there'd only be a tie for the top rung.

The difference this year can be traced to the rankings of the foes. It's the upper half vs. the lower half in both tilts. Actually this is the first year in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill circuit where two teams have proven so much the class of the bunch.

Upsets appear rather vague at the moment. By comparative scores Royersford should be a four or even five touchdown choice over the once-winning Pirates. With the aid of some Ford mercy and experience, we'll call it three.

Upper Perk ranks a similar choice over Boyertown with the added advantage of holding a four-year jinx on the Bears. The division of power this year, however, isn't caused by a shortage of manpower by B-town and SC. Looking over the graduation rolls of all four schools, we could easily visualize just the reverse situation next Thanksgiving with the Perks and Fords hoping for Heavenly intervention—a miracle, that is.

BUT BEFORE we get to next football season, there's still basketball about a week hence, with all the schools faced with the quick changeover necessitated by the fact that most of the athletes in the conference are two or three lettermen.

All the clubs will have to hustle to round into any kind of form by the time the season starts, with the quickest switch having to be made by Upper Perk, which opens at Quakertown on Fri., Dec. 5.

That means Warren Guldin will have five days in which to assemble a squad. He has one consolation. His entire 1951-52 championship first five is still in high school attire. We can think offhand of at least 50 other coaches who would like to be put to the same assembly trouble.

Cage Trojans Prepare For Kutztown Opener

The echo of cheering Trojan grid fans will barely die down this weekend before the chant is once again resumed for the opening of basketball season Tuesday night.

Kutztown, State Class B runnerups the past season will be guests of the Trojans in the first of their 23 games.

With the opener only six days away, Coach Ed Good still does not have a definite lineup planned until the members of the football team report for practice.

Good said last night he plans to use 10 first line men this year in the hope of building a strong bench. While the varsity has been holding daily practices, the junior varsity has also been working out each day, and prospects of a good JV team appear bright.

When JV coach Bill McCabe takes over the reins on Friday—he has been assisting Coach Heeb Moyer with the football squad and coaching the grid jay-vee team—he will be greeted with a tall, energetic group of Sophomores.

Of the original 35 who reported for the jayvee team earlier this month, 16 have been retained. Included in this list are four present footballers, all who performed with the Junior High team the past year.

Merl Shirey, the 5-9 fireball who was on the JHS varsity in 51-52 has been going great and ranks among the leaders fighting for a starting job.

THE JAYVEES will be loaded with height. Bob Gray, who has grown six inches in the past year and now stands 6-1, has all the physical characteristics and mannerisms of Brower Yerger, Pottstown's former cage star. To quote Good:

"He looks more like Brower did as a Soph than Brower did himself."

Bob Grim, younger brother of Don, another ex-Trojan, goes

6-3 and is growing like a beanstalk. He is the tallest Sophomore that Good can remember, even outstretching Dick Ricketts at the same age. Grim still has all the awkwardness of a growing youth but the physical attributes are there and with the proper interest and perseverance he could develop into a Trojan great.

From the football squad will come, Milt Wensel, Dick Smale, Josh Sova and probably Al Bodolus. All played with the Junior High varsity and after shaking out the football kinks should be ready.

Another brother of a former Trojan cager is Carl Sundstrom. Norm Sundstrom is now captain of the Lock Haven State Teachers college team. Carl measures about 5-10 and Good reports that he shows more promise as a sophomore than his brother did in the grade.

Alos pushing the six foot mark is John Shaner, somewhat on the heavy side a year ago, Shaner has thinned out and once his game develops a bit more fire, he'll be a real contender.

Tom Rhoads is another potential starter. The balance of the roster will include Russell Myers, Don Stetler, Francis Stanick, David Schoenly, Webster Canning and Brent Wampler.

All other Sophomore football players are invited out. Of the 16 players Good expects to have on his varsity nine are Seniors.

Naturally Dave Ricketts heads the list. In the three scrimmages the Trojans have had, captain Dave looks sharper than he did last year, if that is possible.

Mike Krickzy, Doug Moser, Fred Harvey, Bill Dettler, and Jack Pollock are the other Seniors who have been working in the pre-season drills.

FOOTBALL co-captains Steve

Chernesky and Bob Sutton are being heavily counted upon, especially for their defensive work. Sutton proved a good "houser" the past season and Chernesky was one of the shining lights in the Summer outdoor basketball league. His rebound work has been sorely missed in early scrimmages.

Merrill Renninger and Carl Stahl are the other Seniors expected to report.

Dick Kovach, Ron Cheney, Earl Decker and James Burchin are the Juniors who have been engaging in the November sessions.

Lin Bieler, Howie Bedell and Bill Kerr will join the squad as soon as football ends.

Good will hold practices Friday, Saturday and Monday before the Kutztown game. He reported that all players will be kept on the squad as long as they show a definite interest in basketball and do not prove detrimental to the team.

City Basketball League Warmups Begin at JHS Gym

Defending playoff champ Three Crowns flashed its snappers for the first time this cage season last night in the City Basketball league warmups at the Junior High school.

The Crowns, under the direction of barreling Danny Ludwig, still have the nucleus of their '51-'52 trophy-winning squad and have added several valuable players. The topmost of those are former Erntex Knitter bouncer Claude (Deacon) Reinhart and Stan Stolar, who captained the 1948 Pottstown High quint, and is one of the steady performers in the area.

Defensive standout George (Pud) Rath shone in last night's scrimmage with a Jacobs team that is entering upon its first year in the CBL.

Other Crownsmen who were out last night were Tom Pollick, former PHS reserve and a holdover from the past year's Crown squad; Andy Krickzy and Herb Gable, both returnees; too; and Howie Deturk, a former Schwenksville High performer.

Dick (Betsy) Umstead is expected to join the active squad later when he has fully recovered from an auto accident.

BILL BINZAK, who spent a few seasons with the Crowns before going over to Bethlehem Steel the past year, is the floor director of the new Jacobs quint. The Jakcs looked rather inconsistent against the polished Crowns, but could still find the right combine out of their squad of 11 players.

Red Seasholtz, a former Senior High Rec loop player, Bob Kirby and Stan Swenk were the Pottstown lads out last night. Kirby played the past season with the Legion while Swenk saw action with O'Dells.

Others who saw action were Reading's Sam Schuman, Bob Fryer from Boyertown, East Greenville's Charley Barnet, the Cannel boys from Norco—Rod and Bob, and Jim Taxter of New York.

At the moment, the circuit is comprised of only six teams, with the starting date set for Dec. 8. The American Legion team which had been entered the year before dropped out last night to leave Three Crowns, Jacobs, URW, Flags, Doehlers and Bethlehem Steel AFL as the only league members.

Interested team representatives should contact the Recreation commission before Dec. 8 in relation to admission to the loop. Eight teams usually comprise the league. This evening, Doehlers and Bethlehem Steel meet in a warmup at 6:30 p. m. at the JHS. Director Howard Horrocks reminded that this would be an excellent opportunity for the referees to warmup, too.

Roger Bowman, southpaw pitcher for the New York Giants, is a student at Colgate university during the off-season.

Grid Trojans Windup Practice Drills for Campaign With Spirited Session Featuring High-Scoring Scrimmage

The final practice session of the Pottstown High football team yesterday afternoon was marked with a spirit that labels trouble for Downingtown.

At the players' insistence, Coach Heeb Meyers scrimmaged his team for about 30 minutes, just enough time to allow Howie Bedell and Jack Bechtel to make several goaline excursions.

The "outside" half of the team—Bedell—ramped for four fast scores, and his "inside" partner, bolted for two.

It was a pleasant windup and now only the Whippets remain before the cleats are put back in storage for another year.

Practice uniforms were turned in and most of the boys completed packing for the Downingtown trip. The rest get their things ready today.

Thirteen Seniors will be in uniform for the Thanksgiving Day game. Leading the upper classmen will be co-captains Bob Sutton, Ron Downie and Steve Chernesky.

The other last time performers are Jack Bechtel, Bill Garrow, Paul Stofko, Don Monroe, Bob Liput, Ed Czakowski, Hal Rosenberger, George Smith, Merrill Renninger and Walt Axsmith.

THE TROJANS are doubly anxious to win against Downingtown. A victory would assure them of better than a last place finish in the Ches-Mont league, and with the present standings what they are the locals could finish in a tie with either Coatesville or Phoenixville depending upon which team loses in their game tomorrow morning.

Worst possible fate the Blue and White can suffer is to have Downingtown win, while at the same have West Chester pull a big surprise and beat the new league

The Pottstown High school athletic association has announced that both football squads of Downingtown and Pottstown will be admitted free to the Thanksgiving night dance at the high school gym.

champs, Berwyn's Bulldogs. Should this unlikely combination occur, West Chester and Pottstown will share the cellar with 1-4-1 loop records.

The main incentive for winning tomorrow is that a victory will prevent the first losing season under the Meyers regime. The season's log now stands at 3-4-1. The last three games with Berwyn, Coatesville and Bridgeport have all ended in defeat for the Trojans.

Downingtown has a 4-3-1 record under Coach Howard Caskey, and the defending Ches-Mont titlists could wrap up second place with a turkey day win, as three of their victories have come in league play. The Whippets lost to Berwyn and Phoenixville.

Because of the early time for tomorrow's game, Meyers did not schedule a practice today. All the studying is completed and only the big exam remains.

DICK ZIEGLER

Dick Ziegler, Former E. Greenville Back Will Open at Offensive Guard for Cadets

Another former star area back will be performing at a regular guard post in a big Philadelphia game this weekend.

Dick Ziegler, former All Everything as a back at East Greenville High, will open at a regular guard spot for Army Saturday in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium against arch rival Navy.

Pottstown's Sam Green, now a guard at Penn State, performed in the State-Penn game three weeks back at Franklin field, and if Ziegler can acquit himself as nobly against the Middies as Sam did versus the Quakers, the Perkiomen valley will have itself a real grid hero come Sunday.

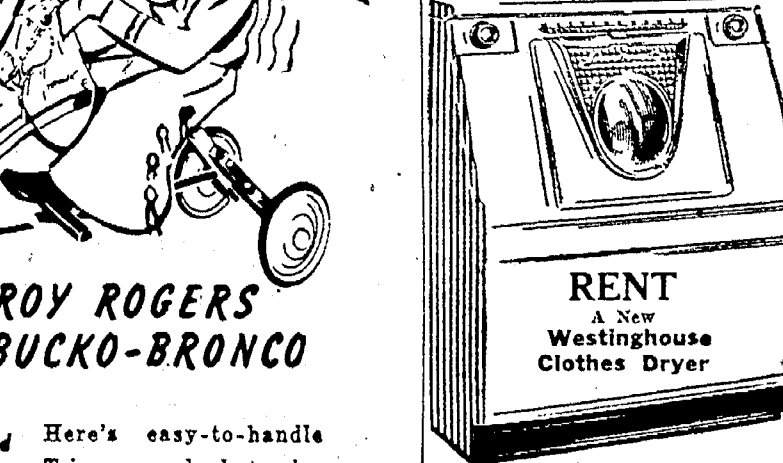

Ziegler has been a regular guard on offense throughout the campaign for the Knights of the Hudson and has developed into one of the squad's real standout performers as a Second classman—the equal of a college Junior.

Ziegler, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ziegler, 351 Jefferson street, East Greenville, is the second Pottstown area back to go to West point a back and leave a lineman. Dave Detar, one of Pottstown High's all-time greats, niched the path in 1948. Injuries held down Detar's effectiveness, though, while Ziegler is in fine fettle for this weekend's big game.

Big Red of Cornell Ready for Penn

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25 (AP)—A 35-man Cornell university squad is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow and put finishing touches on Big Red strategy for its traditional turkey day classic with the University of Pennsylvania.

Two of Cornell's interior linemen, guards Len Omsiskey and Art Boyle, return to the point where their high school football careers unfolded. Omsiskey was a star at Roman Catholic high here and Boyle at suburban Abington High school.

The Big Red planned a light workout tomorrow afternoon. Penn, which traditionally retires to the Cornell game, this year will remain on campus, Coach George Munger has decided.

3 Philadelphia Batters Tops in Pinch Homers

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—Philadelphia's major league baseball clubs both finished fourth, but they were first in pinch-hit home runs as the Phils' Bill Nicholson and the Athletics' Keith Thomas and Allie Clark set the pace.

Figures compiled by the Associated Press today reveal that Nicholson, Clark and Thomas each hit three home runs in pinch-hitting roles last season.

Only two other players—Detroit's Don Kolloway and Johnny Mize, New York Yankee veteran—hit as many as two round-trippers in a substitute capacity.

There were 35 pinch-hit homers wallopped last season by the A's accounting for six of them, Detroit five, the Phillies four and the Boston Red Sox, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates, three apiece.

Army May Surprise Midshipmen With New T-Formation Changes

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 25 (AP)—A year ago the Navy football team confounded the Army, the spectators and the commentators by switching from the T formation to the old Notre Dame box and running for impressive chunks of yardage in the annual service academies' clash.

The question now is: will Army, come up with a new offense Saturday to confuse favored Navy, 102,000 spectators and countless television viewers?

While Navy has been operating this season from three different offensive formations — straight T, split T and the singling variation known as the box — Army has been a straight T team right through.

But it's a T with a difference, which has remained a well-kept secret around West Point. But it is known that Coach Earl Blaik is highly pleased with the maneuver.

vers he has cooked up for his undermanned team.

From observation of the mud-plastered Cadets in the Penn game, Army's last outing before the climactic Navy game, it would appear that two major changes were made in the Army offense of previous years.

First, more line "splits" are being used. That is, the offensive linemen are separated by a yard or more. And instead of sending a halfback in motion to the outside, Blaik has been placing one of his fast men out there as a flanker.

FROM A SEAT in the stands or in front of the television, here's what to look for:

With the line spread out, watch for quarterback Pete Vahn (10) to pitch out to the flanker, especially if trackman Bill Purdue (21) is in that spot, or to Mario DeLucia (33) a fast fullback who runs well off tackle. Vahn also is a pretty good passer with the half-backs and two fairly fast ends, Lowell Elison (83) and Bob Mischak (87) as receivers.

If these tactics spread the defense, then watch for Vahn to fake a play to the outside then send DeLucia or halfbacks Freddie Attaya (48) or John Wing (31) to the "inside" — the guard or tackle holes. Wing may operate from the fullback post as well as halfback.

Navy's varied offense is harder to follow but it operates this way:

NAVY TACKLE WILL PLAY

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 25 (AP)—Don Fullam, first-string tackle suspended for a violation of the Naval Academy code of conduct, was cleared today to play in this Saturday's Army-Navy football game.

The academy said Secretary of the Navy Kimball had recommended punishment "short of discharge" for the 21-year-old Junior from Bronxville, N.Y.

That means Annapolis authorities will discipline Fullam on their own. What steps they take will not be disclosed, but in such cases the penalty usually involves loss of liberty, demerits or the like.

The nature of Fullam's infraction was never divulged. From unofficial sources it was reported his trouble started when he was questioned about absence from a formation.

The split T has the same general effect as the Army's split line. But it depends more on the running ability of the quarterback. The return of Steve Schoderbek (11), who has missed several games because of injuries, indicates that the Midshipmen may use more split T plays. Bob Cameron (12) isn't as good a runner and is more likely to call straight T plays.

THE BASIC difference is that the split T quarterback, instead of whirling for a quick handoff, holds the ball and runs laterally behind the line. On a play through the line, he hands off after one or two steps, but the key play is the "option" where the quarterback waits until the defensive end has made a move before deciding whether to keep the ball and run forward or to pitch it out to another back.

On this setup watch the teamwork between Schoderbek and fullback Fred Franco (33), usually it is a fast fullback, who can take the pitch and go around the end, who does the most damage and Franco has all the qualifications. Sophomore Phil Monahan (34) who started as a reserve fullback, became Navy's starting right half in a recent switch, he also may be on the receiving end of pitch-outs.

Look for Franco and the speedy left halfbacks, Don Fisher (24) and Dean Smith (48) to carry the ball or for a "surprise" pass by a halfback.

On defense, Navy's guard Steve Eisenhauer (66) and captain John Gurski (82) at end have been real standouts. And watch for Tony Corriente (62) to drop back from guard to become middle linebacker in a switch from a six to five-man defensive line.

Potential All-Americans

DICK TAMBURO
Michigan State Star

LARRY MORRIS
Georgia Tech Defender

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—When the final returns are in for defensive positions on the All-America team there is little doubt but that Dick Tamburo of Michigan State, No. 1 team in the nation, and Georgia Tech's Larry Morris will come in for much attention.

Tamburo, a 200-pound senior of 21, was a veritable stone wall in his linebacker spot against Notre Dame when State scored a 21-3 victory over an Irish team which the week previous had handed Oklahoma its first setback.

Tamburo recovered three fumbles against Notre Dame. All came in the third quarter. He gobbled up a loose ball on the State 23 and killed Notre Dame's chance of a touchdown with the Irish leading 3-0.

Then he got a loose ball on the Notre Dame 13 and the play led to a touchdown which put Michigan State ahead for keeps. A few minutes later, Tamburo helped recover an Irish fumble on their own 21. It led to State's second touchdown.

Tamburo, who stands 6-1, hails from New Kensington, Pa.

Larry Morris, a six-footer from Decatur, Ga., was one of the Georgia Tech defensive stars the day the Engineers beat a stubborn Alabama eleven, 7-3. Morris, a 198-pounder, is only 18 and has two more football campaigns ahead of him. He earned varsity letters as a freshman last season.

Ezzard Charles 3 to 1 Favorite to Win Over Crafty Jimmy Bivens at Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 25 (AP)—Ezzard Charles, comeback-trying former heavyweight champion, is a 3 to 1 favorite to brush aside ring-wise Jimmy Bivens in their Chicago stadium 10-rounder tomorrow night.

The winner can bounce into the thick of the chase for Rocky Marciano's crown.

A sparse throng of 4000—paying a wan $15,000 gate—was expected at the fifth meeting of the two Negro boxers which will be televised nationally beginning at 10 p. m. Pottstown time.

Charles, 31, who has been billed as being on the ferocious side in campaigning for his old title, says he will go for a quick knockout of the 32-year-old Bivens.

Such a victory would almost insure the June crack at the winner of the Marciano-Jersey Joe Walcott title match next March which the International Boxing club has promised tomorrow night's winner.

CHICAGO, has been a fateful site in Charles' boxing career. It was in Comiskey Park in 1949, the Cincinnati scrapper beat Walcott to claim Joe Louis' vacated heavyweight title. It also was in Chicago, Charles nearly called it quits after opponent Sam Baroudi died following a 10th round knockout.

Bivens, a cute spoiler from Cleveland, tossed eight knockdown blows at Charles in their previous four meetings.

Charles, who lost the first meeting but won the last three, dumped Bivens three times, but one occa-

GRID FORTUNE TELLER LIKES IRISH, ARMY IN UPSETS

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—At breakfast this morning we knocked over the sugar bowl, spilled the cream and dumped a cup of coffee in our lap.

On the subway we stumbled and upset a sewing basket carried by a grandmotherly commuter, we just broke our fountain pen and overturned the typewriter table, spilling keys and screws all over the premises.

This was hint enough that this is going to be an "upsetty" weekend in football, so, pardon us, while we take Army and Notre Dame in Saturday's big games.

In an effort to beat last week's 31-9 mark, here we go again: Army over Navy: Coach Red Blaik's erstwhile plebes and jayvees, led by Peter Vann, suddenly come of age in an over-the-head performance against a bigger and faster team of Midshipmen. This is a game that often defies form. Navy favored but Army the winner.

Notre Dame over Southern California: Frank Leahy's Fighting Irish, particularly Johnny Lattner who saw little service against Iowa, should be primed for the mighty Trojans, one of the nation's defensive giants. Southern Cal figures for a slight letdown after the victory over UCLA.

Mississippi State over Mississippi: Another traditional game in which the form chart is meaningless.

OKLAHOMA over Oklahoma A&M: Billy Vessels and Eddie Crowder provide too potent a one-two punch for the Aggies.

Georgia Tech over Georgia: The Engineers have too much team speed for their Athens neighbors, but Georgia will make it close on Zeke Bratkowski's passing.

Alabama over Auburn: These teams play so rough with each other that it was called off for a few years. Alabama too strong.

Holy Cross over Boston College: New England's traditional year-ender gives Chuck Maloy a chance to add to his passing exploits.

Southern Methodist over Texas Christian: When two Southwest teams meet and you're in doubt, pick the home club. In this case, SMU.

Tennessee over Vanderbilt: Nashville is jumping and living over this one but Gen. Bob Neyland has a habit of dampening such enthusiasm.

WASHINGTON over Washington State: The Huskies have the scoring punch to win what should be a high-point affair.

Penn over Cornell (Thursday): The Quakers, hot at the start of the season and cold at the end, should rally to clinch the Ivy championship.

Texas over Texas A&M (Thursday): The Longhorns clear the deck for the Cotton Bowl. They're tough at home.

The others: THURSDAY Cincinnati over Miami, Ohio, Colgate over Brown, San Jose State over Santa Clara, Wichita over New Mexico A & M, Utah over Utah State, VPI over VMI, Wyoming over Denver.

FRIDAY NIGHT Miami (Fla) over North Carolina, Mississippi Southern over Stetson.

SATURDAY Louisiana State over Tulane, Baylor over Rice, Virginia over William & Mary, Tulsa over Texas Tech, Wake Forest over South Carolina, College of Pacific over Marquette, Fordham over NYU, Houston over Detroit, Colorado over Colorado A & M, Arizona State at Tempe over Brigham Young.

Michigan State Ends Season in 1st Place on AP Poll; Easy Win for Trojans Could Threaten Spartans Rating

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Michigan State Spartans, their football schedule completed, remained the country's No. 1 college football team today in the ninth and next-to-last Associated Press poll of 1952.

Now the big question is whether the undefeated Spartans can maintain their huge vote appeal next week in the final poll that spotlights the mythical national champions.

Perhaps nothing that transpires in the annual Notre Dame-Southern California game Saturday at Southbend, Ind., will affect the final outcome in the AP poll that has been accepted since 1936 as establishing a national champ.

However, the fighting Irish certainly can affect a few votes as it concerns Southern California, which moved into the No. 2 slot this week for the first time.

Ralph Guglielmi To Repeat Feat

SOUTH BEND, Nov. 25 (AP)—Ralph Guglielmi, who as a freshman quarterback last year spurred Notre Dame to victory over Southern California with his passes, is having his right arm massaged for a repeat performance Saturday.

His aerial work could be the key strategy in Notre Dame's upset plans of pinning defeat on the Rose Bowl Trojans, ranked No. 2 nationally.

USC has a nine-game winning streak to protect and one of the country's best defenses to shield it. The Men of Troy have not lost since the Irish spilled them 19-12 in the 1951 football finale.

First place votes and, won, lost, tied records in parentheses:

1. Michigan State (88) (9-0) 1100
2. Southern California (24) (9-0) 1244
3. Georgia Tech (20) (10-0) 1223
4. Oklahoma (3) (7-1) 722
5. UCLA (1) (8-1) 749
6. Mississippi (5) (7-0-2) 551

Others receiving votes included: California, Kansas, Houston, Mississippi Southern, Pittsburgh, Minnesota, Ohio State, Oklahoma A&M, Navy, San Jose State, Villanova, West Virginia, Yale, Lehigh, Penn State, Missouri, Holy Cross.

Notre Dame, out of the top 10 teams for most of the Fall, has finally found itself No. 7. Furthermore, the spoilers from South Bend are being picked by many experts to whomp Southern California.

Notre Dame has pulled three big surprises this Fall, whipping Texas, Southwest champion; Purdue, co-champs of the Big Ten, and Oklahoma, holder of the Big Seven crown. Michigan State whipped Notre Dame 21-3. Now the Irish have a chance to knock off the Pacific Coast conference kingpins.

Georgia Tech, which has been voted the No. 2 team for the last two polls, slipped to third this week, just 21 points behind Southern California in the balloting of 149 of the nation's sport writers and sportscasters.

Michigan State received 88 of the first place votes, and a total 1400 points on the usual basis of 10 points for first, nine for second and so on. Southern California got 24 firsts, 1244 points; Georgia Tech 20 firsts, and 1223 points.

Ranking of the leaders on a 10-9-8, etc. basis.

Records in parentheses:

1. Michigan State (88) (9-0) 1100
2. Southern California (24) (9-0) 1244
3. Georgia Tech (20) (10-0) 1223
4. Oklahoma (3) (7-1) 722
5. UCLA (1) (8-1) 749
6. Mississippi (5) (7-0-2) 551

Others receiving votes included: California, Kansas, Houston, Mississippi Southern, Pittsburgh, Minnesota, Ohio State, Oklahoma A&M, Navy, San Jose State, Villanova, West Virginia, Yale, Lehigh, Penn State, Missouri, Holy Cross.

Notre Dame, out of the top 10 teams for most of the Fall, has finally found itself No. 7. Furthermore, the spoilers from South Bend are being picked by many experts to whomp Southern California.

Notre Dame has pulled three big surprises this Fall, whipping Texas, Southwest champion; Purdue, co-champs of the Big Ten, and Oklahoma, holder of the Big Seven crown. Michigan State whipped Notre Dame 21-3. Now the Irish have a chance to knock off the Pacific Coast conference kingpins.

Georgia Tech, which has been voted the No. 2 team for the last two polls, slipped to third this week, just 21 points behind Southern California in the balloting of 149 of the nation's sport writers and sportscasters.

Michigan State received 88 of the first place votes, and a total 1400 points on the usual basis of 10 points for first, nine for second and so on. Southern California got 24 firsts, 1244 points; Georgia Tech 20 firsts, and 1223 points.

Ranking of the leaders on a 10-9-8, etc. basis.

Try and Stop Me
By BENNETT CERF

BROADCASTER Robert Trout had occasion to visit a dog pound one afternoon and was so touched by the plight of the mongrels that he interpolated a plea into his newscast that night: Every listener who mailed in a five-dollar bill would not only save the life of a defenseless dog, but would receive said pup for his very own. Some days later the pound director told Trout, "Did you slay them with that broadcast the other night! The money is still pouring in—so many of 'em that we've had to put on a dozen extra dog-catchers to satisfy the demand."

When Cedric Adams announced to his young son that he was going to take him to have his hair cut, the lad reluctantly agreed to go, but added, "Keep me away from Grandpa's barber! He always leaves a hole in Grandpa's head."

A radio station out West received this letter, from a listener: "I have followed your programs for a whole year and now I know you'll find to hear I have a baby."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR
IS LONG FELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Time to Pick Up $2.50

If the young woman struggling with Christmas packages and trying to look at her wristwatch wants to know what time it is, it is time for her to call at The Mercury office and claim $2.50. The lucky ring means dollars to anyone who peers through it. Every day during the Christmas shopping season, the Pottstown Mercantile Bureau will award $2.50 to shoppers caught in the lens of The Mercury photographer's camera. Everyone is a potential target for the photographer while shopping in the borough's Santa Clausland. The prize for yesterday's ringed photo went unclaimed.

Turnpike Described As Wreck Highway

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Pennsylvania turnpike was described today as the "superhighway of super-accidents" of the future.

Paul H. Blaisdell of New York, director of public safety for the National Association of Casualty and Insurance Companies, made the prediction.

Speaking before a joint meeting of the Pittsburgh association of insurance agents and the insurance club of Pittsburgh, Blaisdell declared:

"The number of accidents we now have on this superhighway is nothing in comparison to those that will occur when it is being used in a few years by a vastly increased number of cars."

Greeks Announce Arrest Of Top Communist Leader

ATHENS, Greece, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Interior ministry announced today that Greek security police have arrested Nicholas Ploumbidis, a top Communist leader on the wanted list for eight years.

A member of the Politburo of the outlawed Communist Party, Ploumbidis once sent word he would give himself up if the Greek government would save his "friend and comrade" Communist leader Nicholas Beloyannis from execution. Beloyannis and three other Communists were executed the past month after being convicted for espionage.

Port of England Sinking; Soldier's Joke Borne Out

LONDON, Nov. 25 (AP)—One bit of wry humor left by American soldiers seems to contain a fragment of truth.

The story goes that a homesick Yank in wartime London saw the barrage balloons bobbing in the rain and said:

"Hell, sarge, why don't they cut the ropes and let this place sink?"

It's an old story but Englishmen on dark rain-swept days sometimes mull over it.

There are no balloon ropes to cut any more but it's a fact that the southeast England is sinking, an expert said today.

James Rawlinson, chief engineer of the London County council, mentioned the sinking in a speech and said it was a very real problem.

Owls are not closely related to hawks and eagles.

Barbara Rockefeller Fails To Make Social Register

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—Barbara (Bobo) Sears Rockefeller, daughter of an immigrant coal miner who crashed the social register with her marriage to oil heir Winthrop Rockefeller, found her name missing today from society's Blue Book.

Bobo, born Kievute Paulekiute in a mine patch in Allegheny county, Pa., was tagged "Cinderella" after her Palm Beach marriage to the youngest of the five sons of John D. Rockefeller Jr.

The Rockefellers separated three years ago. His name also was missing from the register. The register adjusts itself to the rise and fall of society figures. Bobo now lives on an Indiana farm with her 4-year-old son, Winthrop Jr.

Oceanographers now know that the Gulf stream is a complex system of currents which join and branch off the main stream at various points.

RISE AUTHORIZED
HARRISBURG, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Waynesburg Home Gas company, gained approval of the Public Utility commission today to raise natural gas rates 20 percent on Dec. 1.

Air Force Search Team Joins Hunt for Flier

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 25 (AP)—A search team from Westover, Mass., Air Force base today joined civil air patrol squadrons from half a dozen West Virginia cities in the search for a private pilot, missing since Sunday on a flight from Reading, Pa., to Camden, Ark.

The Civil Air patrol here listed him as T. F. Scholes of Reading and said he was flying west in a single-engine, low-wing monoplane. He made a radio check with the civil aeronautics communication station at Martinsburg at 3:18 p. m. Sunday and was given a report on weather conditions at Elkins, W. Va.

NEW Old Reading BEER

LIGHTER! DRY-ER! TASTIER! WITH Good Pennsylvania Dutch Flavor

From the heart of the Pennsylvania Dutch country, where the art of brewing was imported from the Old World over 200 years ago, comes this wonderful, New Old Reading beer.

It's lighter! It's dry-er! It's tastier! It's never over-filling! Best of all, it's brimming with zesty Pennsylvania Dutch flavor and character that cannot be found in any other beer.

So do your thirst a favor. Try a glass or two of the New Old Reading today. It's Premium Beer at its very best—at no extra cost!
